Pursuant to an order of the courthouse, the Justices of Sumner County Court, I have examined statements setting the foregoing account of Benjamin Bell as Guardian ship of Nancy Stewart Orphan of William Stewart deceased from proper vouchers and the affidavit of the guardian for articles furnished by himself and considered by your Commissioner as necessary, that he finds a balance of two dollars eighty eight Cents due the Guardian. That since the said Nancy intermarried with Henry Rice that the said Guardian has made sundry advancements to him, but as there is no money in the hands of the Guardian it is viewed by your Commissioner as an unliquidated private account between them and individually, all of which is respectfully reported.
