July the Tenth 1837

By the grand Assembly
 It is ordered that the authorities aforesaid shall not be Edward the Clerk to the Court of Surrogate = Verdict Given (taken to the Assembly)

Gentlemen = 9th Dec. 1837

You that be of the Jury, are to take notice that the cause of your meeting here at present is to Enquire, and find how John Briant a boy, and late servant to John Spillimber, and John Grady came to his death, for when any man, woman or child doe come to their death by any casualty, or untimely means, Enquiry is to be made thereof by the oath of men.
 Now there hath bene a former Inquest holden here last Corps, and found certaine stripes on the back, and a bruise on left ~~the~~ thigh of the Corps. But for as much as they find not deliver in their presentment, how the Corps, and stripes might come, it was thought fitt that further Enquiry should be made, and that is the reason for which you are called to the at this time being all at the same time being sworn together, and sworn to that purpose. Therefore if charge is this day you are to Enquire how, and by what means John Briant came to his death, that a true Record may be made thereof. you are to Enquire whether he came to his death by the hand of man, or by the kick, or tread of a horse, or by a fall against a stump, or tree, or by the instrument of any disease, or by the hand of God, then what weapons.
 And when so wound, or blow of a weapon, were immediately cause of his death, or so that whether there were formerly any ill will, or malice to John Spillimber, or John Grady, if this doth appear, then you are to Enquire, what goods, chattels, lands, tenements, the opinion of the Jury, at the time of the death committed, or since.
 And according to make a true Report thereof.
 These things, and the like, as more as you come, you are to Enquire into, and that you may the better and more advantage, be pleased to hear the examinations of the witnesses.

= Verdict Do. 24th Dec. 1837

London September 21st 1846.

Dear So: friend, my kindest love salute you, & I good wife, & hope these may find you in good health. yours of the 22nd of Feb: & of the 24th March last came to hand, & I twenty five pounds of the 1st not yett sent, shall allowe you I best price for such goods you any where shall have this yeare. We see you desire to be free, & honest to pay I debts, I am glad, & willing to it, & take it very kindly, as also doe continuallye thank you for your care, & paynes about my debts, all the execution of my kindest friend in friendship intreating you to putt an end to it this yeare in settling these matters you have for presents till, & likewise to gett Capt: Drumme, & Capt: Freeman to send me the remainder, they make me a vow to take interest, wh I use not. But I have Reason to take it of them, who have bene greath gainers, & my selfe a losser, my Money being kept from me, the debt is more intrested. They send me two pag: of 10⁰ for interest this last yeare, wh I accept and take it kindly, that they are so much full of me, that we not deny it may be due them. But that I may be humblye p^{er} for your friends are more in the land desired more to pay these debts than in London I do, for I have many letters of deepe expressions to that purpose, and effects, & I doubt but the 10⁰ express as much to the Executors. I pray so gett them to make an end to me this yeare. Touching your bond, if you had desired me to send it I would, though there is 20⁰ 10⁰ of promise to me, But you write for it conditionallye, & I have 20 pag: doe pay the (Debt)

(61) Lett then got forth of Shewth France Sept 17th But be you aware it shall not rise up in judgement against you, or your Executors. Some of those twenty Hoys are good, But yett not of the right sweet sense, and the most p. to be bound good seafe, but of the common sort, and doe to your Neighbour in weeks, And they seeme Right I would have allowe you 5000 pounds for them this yeare, though I can, and have bought as large,

By the grand Assembly

Whereas Cap^t. Jo^hn Jordan by petition to this present grand Assembly hath most humbly desired, That in regard of certaine scandalous Reports spread abroad in this Colony concerning his marriage wth Eliz^a. Bates, some times the supposed wife of Rich^d. Hill) That this Assembly would take a view, and examine the grounds & Reasons whereupon said marriage was celebrated between them the aforesd persons, wth havinge beene dead, and suff^red scanned by the Assembly, And for reasons for the marriage prove to be just, both according to the Common Law, and Civill Law of England — And the whole beinge fully satisfied concerninge the lawfulness of the same, there are therefore accordinge to the opinion, and Judgment of this grand Assembly to certifie the same to whomsoever it shall, or may concerne, And hereby to declare accordinglye the marriage of said Cap^t. Jo^hn Jordan, & Eliz^a. Bates to be lawfull, & just beinge therein satisfied by the subscriptions of the Seamed in the Law, who have stated and Resolved the fact, as under their hands hath to us appeared.

(63) Mr. Mason,

My former presented is my other one, as for it being made from a Court record, pray be pleased to implead the Court on my behalf for this speciality, one is my former debt, & the other as married wife & executrix, of the Willington. Mr.
Coker sheweth a speciality of a debt from Tho. Ballard, & intendeth to discharge it. But there is no agreement of the said bill. Besides there have been several dealings, reckonings & payments both by Ballard & Will-ington, & the said Mr. Coker, & therefore undoubtedly payment is made of the said bill, it being of above 15 years standing. Therefore before you admit of discharge, be pleased to appear to the said Court: to which intent I do appoint you my Lawfull attorney in the premises, satisfying
