Memorandum, that some time about the middle of Oct last past Rob^t Cartwright being very sick and weak desired us the subscribers to take notice that he gave all his estate to his Sister Elizabeth Rog^r except six hundred pounds of tobacco to his Sister Mary to buy her a Suite of cloathes, and to his Son Daughter Sarah Rogers the first Male fully his Ma^rs should bring, and to his old man meaning W^m Rogers all his wearing cloathes that would fit him, and those that are too little for such of his children as they will fit, the truth of w^{ch} we attest under o^r hands & farther say not
