Thos. Claiborne D. C. C.

In the name of God amen the twenty sixth day of July in the year of our lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy six, Mathan Northington of the county of Sussex and Parish of Albemarle being of sound & disposing mind and memory thanks be to Almighty God for the same and calling to mind the certainty of death and uncertainty of this transitory life do constitute and ordain this my last Will and testament in manner following, that is to say, first and principally I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, who gave it me, hoping for salvation through the Merits and Mediation of my blessed Redeemer (Jesus Christ). And as for my body, I commend it to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named and as for my worldly goods wherewith the Almighty hath been pleased to bestow upon me I give and bequeath as follows.

Imp^{ro} I give and bequeath unto my loving son Jacob Northington and to his heirs and Assigns my negro boy Will, which ^{he} has now in possession; also two Doves and Lambs.

Also.. I give and bequeath unto my loving son Nathan Northington and to his heirs and Assigns my Land and plantation wherupon ^{there} now live on the north side of the great swamp containing two hundred and fifteen Acres, be the same more or less, and to be given up to him immediately after my death. I also give my said son Nathan my negro boy Stephen.

Also.. I give and bequeath unto my loving son John Northington and to his heirs & Assigns the lower part of my tract of land on the south side of the great swamp, containing by estimation two hundred and twenty five acres be it more or less being the land shrothaved of Gilbert Keys part of Thomas Griffis and part of David Mason for which Richard Key made me a deed for, and the said land is bounded as follows Beginning at the Mouth of a small branch on the south side of the great swamp next above the plantation purchased of the said Thomas Griffis and is called Griffis's branch, at a small white oak made a corner, Thence up the said branch to the fork thereof, Thence up the west or upper prong of the said branch to the head thereof to a small live oak, Thence along a line of marked trees dividing this land from the land lately purchased of my son Jacob to Adams branch to a
