In the Name of God Amen I Samuel Gilliam of the County of Sussex being in my perfect senses and memory thank be to Almighty God for the same & knowing that it is appointed for all to die do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner form following that is to say I certify I will that all my just debts & funeral expenses be first paid I discharge them I give unto my dear and well beloved wife Patsy Gilliam all my estate both real and personal be it of what nature or kind soever, until my children Mary or come to age she educating & maintaining my children out of the profits of the same until that time & as they marry or come to age, I give to my daughter Dolly Gilliam one fourth part, of the slaves that is then living to her & to her heirs forever, my wife keeping the remaining part of my estate in her possession until my daughter Mary comes to age, then it is my desire that she may have one fifth of the remaining part of my slaves in possession of my wife all which slaves I give to my said daughter Mary to her & to her heirs forever, I also give and bequeath unto my son Phileas Gilliam one fourth part of the slaves in the possession of my wife at the time he comes to age all which slaves I give to him & to his heirs forever, I also give to my

And I do hereby give and bequeath unto my son ^{Calley} William the whole of the tract of land known by the name of the house when he arrives to the age of twenty one reserving to my wife one third of the above said land, during her life & after her death, then I give the whole of the tract of land & plantation, to my said son Rhuben William whom I do hereby give and bequeath unto my son Thomas, both William one third part of all the slaves in possession of my wife at the time he comes to age all which slaves I give to him and to his heirs forever I also give to my said son Thos. both William two thirds of the tract of land known by the name of the wood yard, not taking any part of the house when he arrives to the age of twenty one reserving to my wife Calley William one third part of the above said tract of land, during her life & after her death, then I give the whole of the wood yard plantation, to my son Thomas both William whom I do hereby give and bequeath unto my daughter Lucy William one half of the Negroes, in the possession of my wife at the time she arrives to age all which ^{said} slaves I give unto my said daughter Lucy to her & to her heirs forever, & remaining part, of my slaves then in the possession of my wife I stand to her during her life & after her death the whole of the slaves to be equally divided amongst all my children all which slaves I give to them & to their heirs forever, & after ^{the} death of my wife it is my desire that the whole of the Estate not herebefore given away be equally divided amongst the whole of my children to them & to their heirs forever. It is my particular desire that if either of my said sons should die before they marry or come of age that the survivor or survivors should occupy & enjoy all the lands that I said reserved of except the tracts tent to my wife and after her death the whole of the land I give to them & to their heirs forever; it is my desire that my Executors which I shall hereafter appoint may have the liberty of selling & making a good right to any tract, of my estate within ^{personal} slaves or ^{property} for the use of my wife and children at their own discretion or for the payment of my debts, My will and desire is that there be no appraisement of my estate, And Lastly I do nominate & appoint my dear wife Calley William my Executors & my friends Thomas Hunt, Junr. & John Hunt, Junr.
