In the Name of God Amen. I Andrew Buchanan an of Washington county Virginia being ill of body but of sound mind thanks be to God for his mercies but owing to mind the mortality of my body and that it is appointed unto all men once to die do make this as followeth my last will and testament viz.
I do cheerfully resign my soul to god who gave it and my body to the dust to be decently interred by my executor. I do give and bequeath to my beloved wife Anna Buchanan one third part of all my personal property consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs household furniture and implements of husbandry and one Negro Woman, with the proceeds of her widowhood. I do likewise give and bequeath to my son David Buchanan one hundred and eight acres of Land to be taken off the East side of my Plantation with any improvements sold to Samuel Buchanan and one in perpetuity. I do likewise give and bequeath to my son John Buchanan and Joseph Buchanan my plantation at my wife's death or marriage unless she require it to be sold, then my executors to sell it and divide the price equally between my sons John and Joseph reserving my wife's third part to her own use also one tenth more than part sold to my son John Buchanan. The remaining two parts of my ^{personal property} to be equally divided between my three daughters Margaret Buchanan, Eliza Buchanan and Hannah Buchanan.
Any Lands to which a right shall hereafter be acquired by virtue of any contract which I have made to be disposed of by my executors equally between my sons Matthew Buchanan, David Buchanan, John Buchanan and Joseph Buchanan. I likewise bequeath to my wife one day more twelve year old. My just debts and funeral charges to be paid out of my whole estate, and all debts justly due to me to be collected by my executors. I do hereby appoint my sons Matthew Buchanan and David Buchanan and my wife Anna Buchanan my whole and sole executors under of this my last will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three.
