John S. Campbell Secy.

The Commonwealth of Virginia to the sheriff of Washington County greeting. Whereas William Campbell is proprietor of the lands on both sides of the Laurel fork in this County & is desirous to build a water grist Mill on the said land & to erect a dam across the said stream for working the said Mill. Therefore we command you to summon & impanel twelve fit Persons to meet upon the lands proposed for the abutment on the first day of next Month; which five shillings shall be charged by you impartially & to the best of their skill & judgment to examine the lands above & below of the property of others which may be probably overflowed, and say to what damage it will be of to the several proprietors, whether the mansion house of any such proprietor, or the office, curtilage or gardens thereunto immediately belonging or orchards will be overflowed; to enquire whether & in what degree fork of passage & ordinary navigation will be obstructed, whether by any and by what means such obstruction may be prevented & whether in their opinion the health of the neighbours will be annoyed by the stagnation of the waters, which inquest so made & sealed by the said jurors together with this writ you shall return to the next court to be holden for our said County of Washington. Witness John Campbell Clerk of our said court at the Courthouse this 24th day of March 1809 in the 33rd year of our foundation.

We Joseph Miller, Alexander Buchanan, James Lyon, David Smith, Charles Scott, Stephen Lyon, John McCall, Jonathan Leech, Jacob Lyon, Matthias Nichols, John Campbells and John Tate being summoned by William Poston Deputy Sheriff for Elijah Gillenwaters sheriff of Washington County as jurors to go on the lands of William Campbell on the Laurel

fish in Warrington County where said Campbell is desirous of building a water grist Mill, being impanelled & charged by said sheriff, went on the lands aforesaid & having viewed the land above & below, the Place proposed for the abutment of said water grist Mill, do say, that the lands of no other except those of said Campbell will be damaged by the erection of said Mill, dam, nor ^{will} the mansion house, offices, cartilage or gardens there unto immediately belonging, or orchards be overflowed, nor will the passage of fish of ordinary navigation be obstructed, nor will the health of the neighbours, in our opinion be annoyed by the stagnation of the waters, In Witness whereof we the said jurors have hereunto set our hands & affixed our seals this 1st day of April 1809.
