

A Memorandum of the request of George Smith a few hours before he died he asked for me to come to the Bed to him & said that he wished a boy that he had living with him returned to his mother or to the overseers of the poor for that he was not bound to him he also said that as to a Will he did not conceive that it was necessary for the law had provided in that case as well as he could ^{at a time} neither he conceive that he was capable a long enough to make a will he then said that his oldest son had done considerable of work that he did not conceive that he should be charged with them he said he believed that he had nothing more to say as to his worldly estate this ~~is~~ to the Best of my recollection is in substance the words of George Smith
