John Campbell
James Cummings
Arthur Campbell

At a Court held for Washington County the 19th day of May 1812

The last Will & Testament of John Carmack dec^d. was exhibited into Court proven by the oath of John Campbell & Arthur Campbell two of the subscribing witnesses thereto & ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of John Carmack & William Carmack the executors therein named who took the oath of an executor prescribed by Law & entered into and acknowledged their bonds with Hugh McChesney & Andrew Willoughby securities in the sum of Three thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs. - A certificate is therefore granted them for the probate of the said Will in due form.

John D. Campbell DC

I Thomas Berry of the County of Washington in the State of Virginia being sick and infirm in body but of sound mind & disposing memory do make this my last Will and testament in the following manner. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expences be paid out of my estate by my executors.

I give to my beloved wife Prudence all the property which may be in my possession at my decease which was hers at the time of my marriage with her. I also give and bequeath to my said wife her choice of one cow and three sheep out of my stock. I also give to my said wife my female slave Chrift during her her life or widowhood, and after the decease or marriage of my said wife, the said slave shall be sold on a credit of eighteen months and the money arising therefrom shall be equally divided between my sons Thomas, James, John, George, & Basil. I also give to my said wife the sum of three hundred and thirty three dollars $33\frac{1}{3}$ cents which shall be paid to her out of the first money collected out of the sales of my estate. I direct that my bay horse Charley be sold by my executors on a credit of twelve months & that the amount of his price when collected shall be paid to my said wife Prudence. I also give to my said wife One hundred bushels of corn, twenty bushels of wheat and four barrows out of my stack of hogs. I hereby Order and direct that all the lands which I may own & possess at my decease in the State of Tennessee shall be sold under the direction of my son James at publick or private sale, either in large or small tracts as may in his discretion best suit purchasers, on such credit as he may think will be most beneficial and he is hereby authorized to convey the land thus sold to the purchaser thereof. I give & bequeath a mare which was taken by my former wife to Tennessee and now in possession of my son James, to my Grand daughters Polly and Betsey Berry two of the daughters of William Berry my son. I give and bequeath the sum of Thirty three dollars and $33\frac{1}{3}$ cents to each one of the children of my son William Berry which he had by his first and second marriages, there being ten of them in number. I hereby direct that all my personal estate and the remaining part of my slaves shall be sold by my executors at Publick sale on a credit of Eighteen months. — After the payment of my debts and the foregoing legacies I hereby order and direct that all the residue of my estate of whatever kind it may be shall be equally divided between my sons Thomas, James, John, George & Bazil. Having made all the provision which I intended for my sons David and Robert, I hereby give to each of them the sum of one dollar only. My last request to my son David is that he may treat my said wife Prudence with innocent kindness and good will, & permit her to dwell in my mansion house or some other house which may be convenient for her on the plantation where I now dwell. I hereby appoint my friends Andrew Russell and David Campbell executors of this my last Will and Testament and Revoke all former Wills made by me, declaring this only to be my last Will and Testament. Witness my hand and seal this twenty fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and twelve. The word 'Thomas' interlined on the first page in the 18th line from the top before signing signed sealed published. and pronounced by the said Thomas Berry as his last Will & Testament
