Present Francis Turner Charles Foster John Breedon jun^r & Gabriel Penn Gentlemen Justices of the peace

William Parmer sen^r came into Court and suggested to the Court that he has frequently been called by the name of William Brannan which he positively denies to be his name and prays that the Court may have his proper name inserted on their records, which is ordered to be done accordingly he having adduced to the Court satisfactory evidence that William Parmer is his proper name. Given under my hand and
