Carters Mr. Strung Carter being examined touching a paper depos'd to produced to this Court intimating y^e last will and testament of John Chilton dec^d being asked whether he the said Will Mr Carter did write the same replied that he did write it by the said Chilton's direction and that when he had wrote it he read it over to Mr Chilton and he the said Mr Chilton did like and approve it and added that when he had nigh finished the same the said Chilton said all was well and that he would give the rest amongst them all when upon the latter clause save one was added and the remainder of my Estate to as by the said Will. And for that the words my loving wife Jane Chilton and all my children Mr Chilton said he did not think there was any occasion of naming a wife in a will but believed the only cause why

why the said mill was not signed by the said Chilton was because there was no evidences to be the same done but that persons who present for to that purpose but came not while Mr Chilton was sensible. The said parties being further asked whether the said mill true date the same date it was made he answered it did. And likewise being asked whether Mr Chilton ever desired him to make any other mill for him, he answered no, not to his knowledge.
