

Westmoreland County March 21st 1783.

In pursuance of an Order of the County Court we the Subscribers met at the house of Mr. J^r. Monroe and valued the Slaves belonging to the Estate of Col^o. Andrew Monroe deceased (being presented to us the Com^y) we have valued the Slaves being 40 in Number to the Sum of £1928. £900 of which being claimed by Mr. J^r. Monroe as part of his Father's Estate, were allotted to him for payment of a debt to Col^o. Turner, due from Col^o. Monroe, We the Com^y have also allotted to Mr. Elliot Monroe by a Devise in the said Col^o. Monroes Will $\frac{1}{6}$ of the residue of the Slaves amounting to £171. 6. 8 the remainder of the Slaves being £856. 13. 4. are left in the hands of Mr. J^r. Monroe as an adm^r of the said Col^o. Monroe and subject to in the first place assigned to the payment of his debts as well as the $\frac{1}{6}$ allotted to Elliot Monroe, and subject to an equal distribution to the wife of the said Col^o. And. Monroe between the s^d. John Monroe & his three Sisters,

Thos^t. Jett Jos. Fox, Rich^d. With Outler,