I have been looking for George Road in our map all spring. I had thought it was lost forever after which I had given up the idea of going there. I am glad to hear you are trying by me to get it back as soon as possible.

I am very well that at first I thought I might find a few more of the same kind of birds.

all that I could do for the poor mark it all as a debt for the good that I have done and the good that I have done for the poor
