

of the Enemy in the year 1781

The Barracks near York Town burnt by Command of the Bonetto valued at £ 100

The Hospital, a Kitchen, dairy, & other necessary Houses, a garden well paled in, and a large Stable all pulled down & destroyed by ^{Genl} Cornwallis valued at £ 500

The inside work of the Court House destroyed
The windows broke & other damage valued by work men called for the purpose to £ 100

The pews & steeple of the Church all broke & destroyed The Church used as a Magazine the damage valued to £ 150

there is no more to both the Court House & Barracks near by ^{Genl} Cornwallis £ 1150