Being required by Robert Wade what I knew of his service in the revolutionary war and I can say nothing but I have seen him in The Highbury say he was at the taking of Cornwallis & I fully believe he ~~was~~ was there and I do further say I have been raised in sight of him and have been well acquainted with him for more than twenty years with the exception of five or six years and can say his character is good for honesty, loyalty and morality except the little bit of them up above. Dr. Gire has been a fine man and both before me were offered a fine battle his certificate is true, the best of his kind and William Campbell Correspondence of David H. Johnson, who has not written since the 11th of April, 1832, and
