The Daniel Dunn Family

Sir Daniel and James Dunn were of the Great London Company that promoted the Colony of Virginia. Sir William Dunn-Baronet of Dunn and member of the British Parliament, founder of Dunn, Dunraven, and Dunnsville, descended from some of the ancient kings and chiefs of Scotland.

King Charles the First of England granted titles and arms to the Dunns for military services and loans of money which Daniel and William Dunn made to him in 1625. These Dunns were brothers and had sons by the same names who came to Virginia from London.

Daniel Dunn, Sr. was the ancestor that all the Dunns in Murray County, Ga., are descended from. He fought in the Revolutionary War in the early part of 1776 in Captain George McCulloch's Company. He was wounded in the war and served 55 days for which he was paid 4 pounds, 2 shillings and 6 pence. We believe he is the son of William who came from England.

Daniel Dunn, Sr. was born in 1761 in Henrico County, Virginia. Rhoda, his first cousin, was born in 1759 and they married in 1781. They had 11 children. They moved early into Tennessee and died in 1821 and 1822.

Daniel Jr. was their fourth child born in 1787 in Greene County, Tenn. He married Susannah Parman, b. 1790 in Kentucky. They moved to Blount County when his mother and all her children moved as a group. Daniel Jr. died in Tuckaleechee Cove, Blount County, Tenn., in 1844. He and Susannah had 12 children. Susannah moved with all but three of her children to Murray County, Ga. She died in 1896 and is buried in Calvary Baptist Church Cem. on 225 N.

William, Daniel Jr. and Susannah's second child, was married and widowed in Blount County. He married 1st Mary Polly Shields, dau. of Arnett Shields and Mary Polly Emmett. She was born in 1814 and he in 1812. They had 12 children. She died in 1863. They had a son, Levi, who died in the Civil War.

William married 2nd Martha Briant, b. 1820 and widow of John Caylor. She died in 1865 two weeks after the birth of their first child, William's 13th. They were living in Murray County near Cisco when Sherman Andrew Dunn was born. She is buried in Calvary Baptist Cemetery.

William married 3rd to Lucinda Pace, b. 1845. She died in 1866 after the birth of a child which also died. She is buried at Calvary Baptist Cemetery.

William married 4th to Mary Jane Withers, b. 1843, d. 1895. They had seven children. She had a son at the time of the marriage who also went by the name of Dunn. William is buried at Calvary Baptist Cemetery also. William had 21 children by four wives.

William's nickname was Long Bill. There were a lot of William Dunns in the area so to distinguish between them they were called Short Bill, Blue Bill, Black Bill, and Long Bill.

William and Martha Briant's only child, Sherman Andrew, was born in 1865 and at an early age was partially blind from cataracts. He became totally blind as an older man. He married 1st Sarah Josephine Crumley from Fannin County, Ga. She was born in 1870. They had 9 children. She died in 1911. (1) Maude. (2) Martha m. Noah Fowler, had 13 children. (3) Andrew Sherman m. Lou Dunn, had 11 children. (4) Mark b. 1894, m. Florence Green, Fannin Co., had 7 children. (5) Mary m. Dolph Baxter, had 13 children. (6) Clint died at 7 yrs. of age. (7) Julie m. James Isaac Millsap, had 10 children. (8) James Millard b. 1904, m. Linda Lou Green, had 7 children; d. Jan. 16, 1981. (9) Harold b. 1907, m. Ada Brackett, had 13 children, lives Old Fort, Tenn., last surviving child.

Andrew married 2nd to Laura Dill or Deal. She was born 1868, d. 1960. She is buried in Mt. Sumach Baptist Cemetery, Hwy. 2. Their children: (1) Sherman b. 1913, m. Louise Allen, had 12 children, live in Cisco, Murray County. (2) Laura Ester b. 1916, m. 1st Sidney Davenport, had 6 children; m. 2nd Neal Wheeler, live in Tunnel Hill, Ga. (3) Jim b. 1917, is disabled and lives in rest home in Dalton, Ga. (4) Mack b. 1923 m. Lillie Mae Crider, have 9 children, live in Tunnel Hill, Ga.

All of Sherman Andrew's first children by Sarah moved out of Murray County into neighboring areas such as Cleveland, Benton, Old Fort, Chattanooga and Rossville, Tenn.

James Millard and Linda Lou Green Dunn moved back to the county after the death of their oldest child, Daniel Richard, b. 1924. Their second child, James Lee b. 1930, who fought in the Korean War, bought the farm where his parents had spend their wedding night 50 years earlier and brought his parents back to Murray County where they died. They were very happy to be back at home at last.

James Millard and Linda had 7 boys, only 4 of whom lived to be grown. The two youngest live in Ft. Oglethorpe. James Lee, the second child, had 4 children. He now lives off Hwy. 2 on Willow Oaks Rd. Three of his four children now live in Murray Co. The youngest, James, graduated from Murray County High in 1982. At present, he is in basic training in the Army. Three of James Lee's children have 2 children each.

This accounts for 9 generations of Dunns from the first Daniel in London, England.
