Notes

Father and Mother of Elizabeth Maria Holcombe were William Holcombe and Thomasin Earle Briggs, of Pickens Co., S. C.

James Clingman Smith was unusually smart, said to be "just a genius." His funeral was about a mile long, which was exceptional for 1847.

Many people thought Forsyth County would be the crossroad of Ga., but Bluford D. Smith thought it would be Atlanta, Ga. He moved from Cumming, Ga. to Atlanta the day Major John was a month old. He became a Judge and prospered greatly. His home was the first house built on S. Pryor St.
