BONDURANT-MOSS.

A Brilliant Wedding at the Methodist Church.

The First Methodist church was the scene last evening of one of the most beautiful weddings ever celebrated in the Classic City.

The floral decorations were extremely lovely and were arranged very artistically. The church was crowded with friends and acquaintances of the contracting parties at 8 o'clock last evening when the sweet strains of the wedding march floated out from the organ at which Miss Lillie Barnett presided.

The ushers came in the following order: Messrs. George Lucas and Delaney Sledge; Messrs. R. L. Hampton and O. H. Jones.

Then came the attendants: Miss Mattie Hunsbrett, of Athens, and Miss Belle Abbott, of Atlanta. Messrs. O. H. Newton and Fitzgerald Green, of Athens.

Misses Beale Miller, of Augusta, and Emma Jones, of Atlanta.

Messrs. R. L. Moss and W. M. Rowland, of Athens.

Misses Sallie Hunter Moss and Elsie Tyler, of Athens.

Messrs. E. O. Kouts, of Atlanta, and T. R. Stanley, of Athens.

Mr. Joseph Noel, of Danville, Va. the best man, came in with Miss Lillie Moss, the bridesmaid.

Then came the groom, Mr. Ernest J. Boudurant, of Danville, with

May he rest in peace
in Heaven.

William Lee Sanderant
died July 3rd 1862.

Our dear Willie was taken from us, and as he was the brightest to be seen
and when our hopes were brightest for his future.

With sad and sorrowful
hearts, we his parents, live
with submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, who humbly trust
that our spirits may be gathered together in the home of the Lord.

O Lord, guide my servant
on earth, and bring us by
thy mercy to glory here,
and life eternal in Heaven.
