My Darling Sister

I received your letter last Saturday I was overjoyed to hear from you as we hear you was well I was getting very uneasy I could not hear a word I haven't received but one letter from you since I left but have not sent to you I haven't got any ^{thing} to write I don't think there is much news. I'm sorry sister you never wrote whether he will stop to see us or not I will think it hard if he don't. I'm sure I want you to write as often as you can for I am way down here.

In the low town sometimes it looks like I haven't got no kind pole at all you said I never wrote how I got home we got on the train at the fountain station at Sandown got to Macon about eight o'clock got on the omnibus went to the hotel there all night started Sunday morning at Sandown came to next station there Mr. Parfield got off came on down to Portville then Mr. May got off then I came

My Brother Tell me

William & Buck & I expect it will on down to America got on the Buck's scale up in town to Mr. Burrows then got a buggy and horse and came out home. - Sister I had a nice time. Mr. Arny and Mr. Garfield was very kind to me. Billie went to America on Saturday to meet me he said he was quite sick when he got there and found I wasn't there.

Will Sister do you get any sewing to do for the freedmen. I have been getting quite smart & have made $3.00 dollars since I got home.

Tell Ma I hope she will make a plenty for you all will get along better in her old age

I will close soon and as often as possible tell Buddy to write to me when you write I want you to write what all the people is doing in Washington Billie joins in love to you all Auntie Buck
I remain your loving sister
