Death of Mr. W. S. Howard at Metcalfe.

Our entire community was plunged into the deepest sorrow Wednesday afternoon upon learning of the death of Mr. W. S. Howard, one of our best and most favorable citizens. While it was known that he was quite ill, still the tidings of his death were none the less sore.

Mr. Howard came to this community from Columbus, Ga., some twenty years ago, and identifying himself with our people, he has ever since labored for their moral and material uplift. He belonged to one of the best families in Georgia, being a son of Judge Mitchell Howard of Columbus, deceased.

He has still living, a brother, Mr. John Howard, of Jacksonville, Fla., and two sisters, Mrs. Newman, of Macon, and Miss Sarah Howard, of Columbus. When, during the civil war, the flower of our southland threw themselves between the enemy and our homes, he was among them, and served as a brave Confederate soldier till our cause went down in defeat; meantime he received a wound from which he never entirely recovered.

The deceased was a consistent member of the Methodist church, which he loved, perhaps, only second to his Lord. His is a place which will be hard to fill both in the church and the community at large.

He leaves a wife and three children. He will be buried this afternoon at the Spring Hill grave yard, near town. The whole community joins in sympathy for the sorrow stricken family.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL AT SHELLMAN, GA.

On the 11th day of February, 1901, God sent his angels to pluck from our Sunday school one of its most perfect flowers, and transplant it in the beautiful garden above, there to bloom forever for the glory of her Saviour.

Whereas, the earthly life of our beloved sister, Mrs. Julia McGregor, wife of our esteemed pastor, W. D. McGregor, has ended, be it

Resolved, first. That we, the members of this Sunday school, which she so faithfully attended and served, extend our most heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband and sons;

Resolved, second. That we recognize in our departed sister a subject of patience and cheerfulness, and that her beautiful life deserves to be held in loving and lasting remembrance.

Resolved, third. That we bow in submission to the all-wise hand that afflicted and realize that "He wounds who knows to bind and heal the broken heart."

Resolved, fourth. That a copy of this tribute be spread upon the minute book of the school and that a page be marked, "Sacred to the memory of our dear teacher," that a copy be sent to her husband, and that one also be sent to the WESLEYAN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE for publication.

Lovingly submitted,

In memory of Anderson Howard, who departed
this life in Atlanta, Ga., May 25, 1905.

Farewell, dearest brother,
There is rest beyond the sea,
In the shades of Westmore,
Thy weary body lies.

No heart can grieve for one who
Can now dwell with thy angels
In Heaven above with Jesus' love,
The weary are at rest.

The Saviour saw thy agony,
He heard thy groans and tears,
And sent his angel spirits bright
To wait to heavenly spheres.

We miss thee, dearest brother,
We miss thy gentle will,
The tone, that echoed, sweetly dear,
O'er made our hearts rejoice.

Thy heart was full of tender love
For friends and kindred dear,
The sorrows felt by them below,
Would bring from thee a tear.

And can the soul, so tender true,
Be buried in the soil?
Oh, No! It cannot, cannot die,
But rests at peace with God.

Then farewell, dearest brother,
Farewell to earth and pain,
We know that in God's home on high,
We all shall meet again.

Look down on me, for I am weak—
I feel the tedious journey's length;
Thine aid omnipotent I seek
Thou art my Strength!

I am bewildered in my way
I grieve and tremble with the night,
Oh! lend thou forth some cheering ray

Anderson Abner

Abercrombie, Anderson, planter, was born and reared in Hancock County, Georgia and died in 1887; son of Major Charles and Dicey (Boothe) Abercrombie and brother of James Abercrombie. He was an extensive planter and slave owner. He initiated as a private in the war of 1812, rose to rank of Adjutant-General, and was wounded in the battle of Salado. The Indians were his friends on account of his kindness to them, and when hostilities broke out between the settlers and the Indians, the Abercrombie home was not molested. He represented Hancock County, Georgia in 1823 and 1827 in the house. Early in the thirties he removed to Sumacill county, Alabama and settled on a large plantation. He was a Presbyterian; and a Democrat. Married 1818 at Sparta, Greene County, Georgia to Mary, daughter of John Trimen, of that place. Children; (1) Elizabeth M. Nicholas Howard; (2) John Trimen M. Charles Abernethy Abercrombie, Thomas, soldier of the American Revolution, and early settler of Hancock County, Georgia, was born about 1742 and died in 1811; son of Robert Abercrombie of Scotland who emigrated to America and settled in Hancock County, Georgia. He was an officer in the Revolutionary War and is said to have been "a gentleman of great wealth and influence and held the rank of Major in the patriot forces during the Revolutionary War. He was patriotic in every sense of the word, and while the eventful struggle was in progress created a large fort which was designed as a protection and free use for friends and neighbors. SYNOPSIS OF THE GEORGE WALKER FAMILY TREE

From printed synopsis with the Tree.

Copy made for Mrs Lee Howard of Cochran by Rev. Swell Senger
September 17, 1949

George Walker and his brother, Thomas Walker, together with their sister, Mary, and her husband, whom she married in Ireland, John Dallas, came to America from Ireland in 1750.

John Dallas and his wife settled on Sassafras/ river in Delaware, and the connection was not kept up between the families.

Thomas after a few years spent in So. Carolina, settled in Richmond county, Ga., near Hephsibah, in 1756 and raised a large family. Many of his descendants are still living in that county.

George Walker settled on Briar Creek, in Burke county, and in 1756 married Mary Dahart.
They had twelve children born to them, as follows:

1st. Mary, born Dec. 10, 1757. She married General Wm Byne and had five children, Martha, Margaret, Elijah, Noah and Mary. There are no living descendants of this branch.

2nd. MRS Esther, born February 29, 1759. She married _____ Carter and lived in Burke County. They had two children, Margaret Allen and Mary Stone. A number of descendants of Mary Stone are living in Richmond, Wilkes and Thomas counties.

3rd. John Walker, born Sept. 5, 1760. He married Frances Byne, a sister of General Byne and had four children, Isaac, Edmund, John B. and Eliza Dawson. He moved from Burke to Morgan county in 1810, and a number of his descendants are still living there.

4th. Elizabeth, born Dec. 25, 1761. She married John Jones, lived in Burke county and had seven children, Mary, George, Esther, Eliza, Rebecca, John and Margaret A. A number of her descendants are now living in Burke, Bibb and Fulton counties.

5th. George Walker, born Nov. 14, 1763, settled at Longstreet in Pulaski county (now Blackley county) and had nine children, Joel, Rebecca, Polly, George, David, Thomas B. Charles, Sarah and Betsey. A number of his descendants are now living in Pulaski county.

6th. William Walker, born Sept. 5, 1765. He settled first in Putnam, then moved to Harris County; commonly called "Old Rich Billy." He had seven children, Dr. Austin M. Thacker, Virgil, David B. William, George, Lucian, and Polly. Some of his descendants live in Pulaski county and a number of them live in Alabama.

7th. Rebecca, born Oct. 5, 1767. She married Henry Byne and had three children., Thomas, Edmund and Henry. This branch is now extinct.

8th. Thomas Walker, born Feb. 3, 1769; could learn nothing of him, whether he ever married or even reached maturity.

9th David Walker, born Nov. 3, 1771.

10th. Noah Walker, born Jan. 22 1773.

These two brothers lived together on a farm on Little river, in Morgan county. Neither ever married. They each died in their 44th year and are buried beside each other and beside their brother, John Walker, in the old Walker graveyard in Morgan county.

11th. Margaret, born Jan. 30th, 1775; married Reuben Reynolds in Burke county and had five children, Thomas, Walker, Margaret, Reuben Y, and John. A number of her descendants are now living in Alabama.

12th. Moses Walker, born May 2, 1776; had six children, Frank, Moses, Margaret, Maria, Alex, and Isaiah.

I have been unable to fully develop this branch, yet I believe there are other of his descendants living; some of them now in Morgan county.

The trunk of the tree represents the originator of the family in America - George Walker.
His children are represented by the twelve main branches, whose names and date of birth show in this synopsis.

Each branch bears the name of one child. Only given names of sons are put on their respected branches, while each daughter has her given name, and if she be married her marriage name also is on her branch.

(This synopsis is NOT signed but it is presumed that S.R. Webster who signed the tree probably drew the tree and wrote the above synopsis - Swell Senger Sept. 17, 1949).

In the passing of Dr. T. D. Walker, the Baptist Church of Cochran sustains a loss that to each member is a personal grief, for each loved him for his beautiful nobility of character, his fearlessness in standing for the right and his faithfulness to the church. His ministry to the sick of the community for years endeared him to all his fellow men.

Therefore be it Resolved:

That we extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family with the hope that the God of all comfort may bless and guide them "till the day dawns and the shadows flee"

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be recorded in our minutes, a copy be sent to the families of each one of his children, and a copy sent to the Christian Index.

"Ten Cents Admission to Camp-Meeting."

"We will praise God, friends, as we sing
This glorious old gospel hymn:
'Salvation's free for you and me,
'Thank God, salvation's free.'
But another voice floats o'er the breeze:
'Ten cents admission, if you please.'
It's the gate keeper who says this time,
'If you come in you must pay a dime.'"

"Now let us pray," the parson says,
And the reverent audience bow their heads,
While up to heaven their prayers ascend
To God the Father, Saviour, Friend,
Asking him to do to them
As they do to their fellow-men;
But the gate keeper, I hear him say,
'You can't come in if you do not pay.'"

"The lesson for this day we will take
From Luke, sixth chapter, from twenty-eight.

To the last verse, wherein our Lord
Himself has taught me in His Word,
To 'love our enemies—lend and give,
Ask no reward and thou shalt live;
But hark! I hear that awful din,
'Without a ticket you can't come in!'"

"We will continue our service and sing
This beautiful revival hymn:

'There is a gate that stands ajar,
And through its portals gleaming
A radiance from the cross afar,
The Saviour's love revealing.'"

But listen—I hear the porter say:
'These gates are closed for to day.'"

"The text, my brethren, you will find,
In John, tenth chapter, and verse nine,
When our Saviour says, 'I am the door
Where all may enter, and evermore
Find entrance free, sinner, for thee,
And eternal life abundantly.'"

But over the fence I see men climb
To hear salvation, who hadn't the dime.

Now the sermon's ended; we invite you here

Around the mercy-seat in prayer:

So, "Come, ye sinners, poor and needy,
God's free bounty glorify;

Without money, without money,
Come to Jesus Christ and buy."

"No admittance," I hear the porter cry,
'Without a ticket!' so do not try.

"To Greenland's icy mountains,
To India's coral strand,
To Afric's sunny fountains,
And every heathen land,
We send a free salvation,
The gospel truths proclaim,
So that every heathen nation
May learn Messiah's name."

But in Alleghany's mountains,
In this enlightened land,
The golden calf is worshiped,
Made by Aaron's priestly hand;
And around the gospel fountain
A fence is built up high,
You pay ten cents admission,
Or stay away and die.
