& thus guided, and strives for victory, will be into temptation and be crowned in person: we have shown you the power of prayer, and the probable effects; we have seen that has been given, never a temptation remain, God will make us able to be beary we but command reasonable self-denial what have we shown, that the temptation are is not greater than that of another.

It remains for us to say, though without fear, that we denounce card playing, and all in gambling, in this church; reminding that the practice can not be auxiliary to Christianity, but an the other hand, calculated to make members wilfully negligent of their rights; and then that because an avowed prayer to Satan, as for as this all shall not mind him in follows this practice, in it is very sympathy with the church as far from it, it will be a youth he all respect due respect to his parents, and all as the church, and is God. Hence, a relation of order is remembered.

Conscious of many errors, committed in reports and much hurry, we respectfully think our answer.

J. K. Bryson,
 Chairman.
