March 30, 1937.

Judge B. C. Hill,
 Ordinary, Barrow County,
 Winder, Georgia.

Dear Judge:

The application of Mrs. P. P. Jennings, widow of P. P. Jennings, late a pensioner of Barrow County, whose death occurred on April 14, 1934, for pension payments accrued to the husband for years 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925 and 1926 and unpaid at the time of his death, appears to meet the conditions of the Act of the General Assembly, approved October 9th, 1891; therefore, you are respectfully authorized to continue the name of the soldier on the pension roll of your county, for the years abovementioned, just as if he were alive, and make the balance of the payments to the widow.

Unless and until the present law is changed, Mrs. Jennings cannot be admitted to the pension roll in her own right, for the reason that her marriage took place after January 1st, 1891.

With kindest regards,

Yours very truly,
