DEAR SIR:-

Enclosed herewith find application for pension of Mrs.
Elizabeth D. Minshew, which was before you last year, and returned for reasons stated on back thereof.

The applicant has nothing further to submit, except the parole of her husband, which is attached to the application, as there are several persons who knew of his service but they were not in his company and regiment, so they could not swear positively as to his army service.

If this parole is not sufficient, then she is done under the present laws, for she cannot furnish more evidence.
