Hon. F. A. Coiden, Sr.,

My dear Judge:

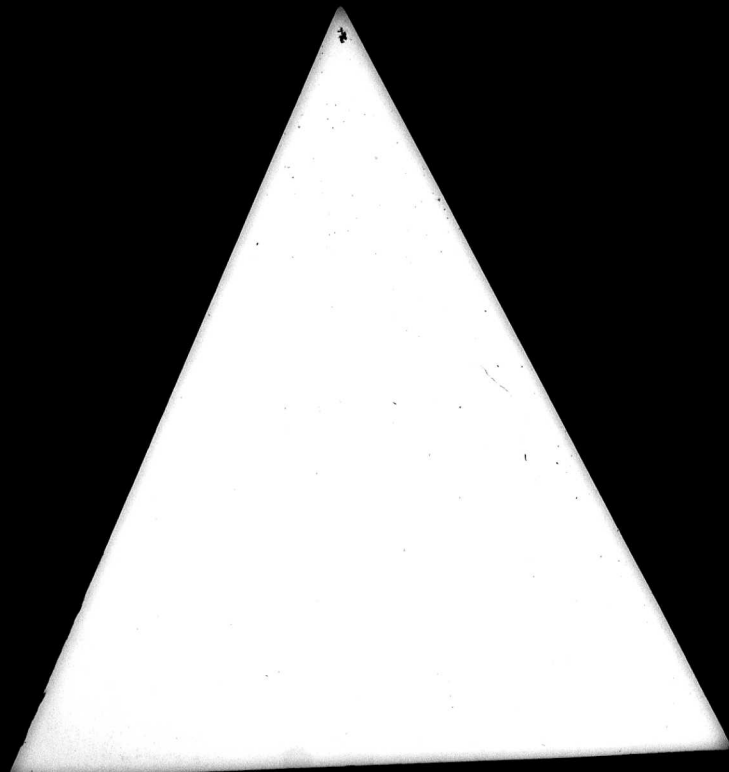

The application of Mrs. Robert Lang to be placed on the pension roll in her own right cannot be approved for the reason that Mrs. Lang was married December 14, 1881 instead of before January 1, 1883. I regret that this widow cannot be enrolled in her own right under the present law.

We will be able, however, to pay Mrs. Lang the four quarterly pensions of her deceased husband for the year 1929, she to apply for the pension each quarter.

With kind regards,

Very truly yours,
