Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Judge:

I have after considerable delay completed the application of Mrs. F. F. Lewis for pension as suggested to me by you and am enclosing same to you, and certainly hope there will be no further delay of this old ladies pension; the poor old creature is worried herself about it all the time and is continually calling on me for help, and because I can not console myself entirely in my daily practice.

Please advise me as early as possible in order that I may set her mind at rest.

Very truly yours

INSTRUCTIONS:

1st. This form can be used by guardian, or minor children, where there is no widow.
 2nd. The Ordinary must, in all cases, send certificate of marriage attached hereto, if marriage is not proven by witness. A voided form of the commonly used certificate in common vogue throughout this State, suitable only for training. Such a certificate is entirely too bulky for use in any sort of pension paper.
 3rd. The form is for widows of disabled soldiers who died after October 31st, and for widows and dependent children of service soldiers who died after November 1st.
 4th. The Ordinary should examine the application carefully and see that it is fully and correctly completed, and the facts stated, and that the back, when folded, is filed out.
 5th. For out no money on this application until it is approved in the Pension Office, and returned to you as your authority to make the payment.
 6th. Return this application with your final settlement to the Pension Office.
 7th. The widow signs pay-roll for the pension of her husband, signing her name opposite his name thereon.
 8th. The pension for only one year can be borrowed. Each year's pension is a separate and distinct transaction and must be so treated. If widow of a "new" pensioner, who was due 1916 and 1921 pensions, she must make two yearly applications—one for each year. Attach a separate marriage license to each yearly claim.

Dear Sir

I return the application of said man and battalion for Pension just as it was as I can get no further information from him or any one else as there is not another member of his Company that we can find now Living Captains Popple died soon after the war and all the information he can give me is that he belonged to Captain Popple's Company and Col H. H. Floyd's Regiment - and if the Company had any initial so he did not know it - if I could have gotten the missing information it would not have been necessary to have bothered you with it - at all as the Pension Board would have said without any trouble and I return
