Application for Pension Due to a Deceased Pensioner

(To Be Filled by the Ordinary for Expenses of Funeral and Last Illness)

(Under Act Approved August 18, 1904)

GEORGIA, Campbell County.

Personally before me, the Ordinary of said County, comes L. F. Banks, of Wilkes Fayette County, Georgia, who, after being sworn, on oath says that he knew Mrs. Mary A. Banks of said County, and that said Pensioner was on the Pension Roll of said County at the time of death, which occurred in Campbell County, in this State, on the 5th day of June, 1925, and that a Pension of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars was due pensioner and unpaid at the time of pensioner's death, and that pensioner left no widow or dependent children surviving, and no estate of any value sufficient to pay these funeral expenses, which amounted to the sum of $ 91.00, per sworn statements fully and completely ITEMIZED hereto attached, and paid by my brother, J. A.
Banks and myself.

Before me this day personally came Dr. J. T. Mc Lengine, of the said county of Campbell, a regular Practising Physician, known to me to be entirely trustworthy, and whose statements are entitled to full faith and credit, who after being duly sworn as a witness in support of the application of J. J. Barfield for Pensions, herewith presented, <sup>says</sup> that he (deponent) is personally and well acquainted with applicant, and that if he (applicant) received the wound now on his arm while in Confederate service (and deponent, from a long acquaintance with applicant) is perfectly satisfied that applicant did receive said wound in War as he states, that the is permanently unfitted for ordinary manual labor even now; that applicant could not possibly have been physically able for duty at any time during said War after having received the aforesaid wound in his left arm; that deponent has carefully examined the said wound, and after making such examination, he unhesitatingly says that applicant is beyond question or cavil incapacitated for any such service as was expected and required of the soldiers in the late War; that applicant will never recover the full use of his left arm; that a part of it has been removed and that the said arm can never be made to do any actual strong labor, or regain its former and wanted strength; that such a recovery is absolutely a physical impossibility; that <sup>applicant</sup> is a man of unquestioned veracity, and that his word is never questioned by any one with whom he has ever had any acquaintance.

In person came before me, the undersigned Ordinary

County of Campbell in and for said County, witnesses

R. J. Fuggle R. W. Mason
R. W. Terry (each known to said Attesting Officer as truthful, reliable and reputable citizens), who severally say under oath, that, from their own personal knowledge, Mrs. Mary A Barge of the County of Campbell

State of Georgia, is the widow of Richard Barge, who was a soldier in Company B of the 7th Regiment of Georgia State Troops Volunteers.

That said soldier enlisted in the service of the Confederate States (or the Georgia State Troops) on or about the 25th day of August 1863. That while in said service, or by reason of said service in the Army, he lost his life as follows:

He was on the 15th day of October 1863 at Kome Georgia taken sick with typhoid fever and on account of said sickness he was on or about the 25th day of October 1863 sent home on a furlough and on or about the 31st day of October 1863 he died with said disease so contracted in said service.

We further swear that Mrs. Mary A. Barge was the wife of said soldier during the service, and that she has not intermarried since his death, and that she resides in Campbell County of the State of Georgia.

NOTES.

The pension is only payable to certain classes of widows.

Those whose husbands were killed in service.

Those whose husbands died in the army of wounds or disease contracted in the service.

Those whose husbands went to the army and have never been heard from since the war.

Those whose husbands were wounded in the army and have since died from the direct effects of the wounds.

Those whose husbands contracted disease in the service, and who after the war, died of the disease caused by the service. The disease directly causing the death.

No widow is entitled unless she was the wife of the soldier during the war, and has never remarried.

The law does not provide for any one living out of the State of Georgia, or who did not live in the State at the date of the Act.

The facts to establish a claim must be substantiated by the testimony of three witnesses who personally know of the enlistment of the husband and his death and the immediate cause of the death.

Widows who have married since the service of their husbands in the army are not entitled.

There is no need of employing a lawyer or other agent to attend to these claims. The Department will furnish full and specific instructions, and give ample opportunity to every claimant.

If witnesses live in another County from that wherein applicant resides, they must go before the Ordinary and testify. The attestation of a Justice of the Peace or Notary will not answer.

Fill out Power of Attorney authorizing some one who can call at Treasurer's office in Atlanta and receive the money, to receipt for same.

Fill out the "directions" below Power of Attorney, so that your Agent will know where and how to send the money.

By order of the Governor.

Mrs. Mary A. Barge

who being sworn according to law, says under oath that she is the widow of Richard Barge, who was a soldier in the service of the Confederate States, and served as a member of Company B, of the 7th Regiment of Georgia State Troops Volunteers; that he enlisted in said service on or about the 25th day of August 1862, and was in the Confederate Army up to 21st day of October 1863. That while in the Army, he was on the 15th day of October 1863, (See Note No. 1)

he was taken sick at Home Georgia, and on account of said sickness he was in or about the month of October

1863 sent home on a furlow and on the 31st day of October 1863

he died with said disease so contracted in said

service

Deponent further swears that she was the wife of said deceased soldier during his term of service in the Army, and that she has never married since his death; that she became his wife on the 15th day of November 1863, and that she has resided in Georgia continuously since the 6th day of March 1864; that Georgia is her home, and was such on the 23d day of December, 1890, and since said date she has not lived in any other State or locality. Deponent, as the widow of said deceased soldier husband, applies for the pension provided by Act of the General Assembly of Georgia, approved December 23d, 1890, for the pension year ending February 15th, 1892, and herewith tenders the proof of her right to receive the allowance granted by said Act.
