Dear Miss Henderson:

Mrs. Allen Jones gets me to write for her. She isn't very well much of her time. I sent an affidavit to you or Mr. Chest ham from Brown. Since I have many more statements which to me would help - some I will enclose. Trust you keep them with her file.

I am not sure Mr. Allen Jones even signed his name as I write it. He may have used A. or Allen.
 Wish you would notice

if there is an A. or Allen Jones from Bulloch Co - his children heard him talk of a Mr. Manning.
 It seems he was a Capt.
 On reaching Atlanta
 he and Bill or William Lanier of Emanuel Co. became big pals - After a battle they were separated and couldn't find each other for some time.
 Both of these men were fairly successful and never asked for a pension. If you find name of one it is likely you will find the other.

Dear Judge Jones:-

Recently I have been reviewing the applications which have been neither approved nor disapproved since January, 1938. I find in this file the application of Mrs. T. W. Jones, from your county.

Mrs. Jones furnished information that her husband enlisted in the service and affidavits to prove this, but there is no data among these papers stating when and where he left the service.

If Mr. A. T. Darden, a Confederate pensioner residing at Stillmore, Georgia, will amend his affidavit by stating that Mr. Allen Jones remained in the army until the war closed or was at home on sick furlough at that time, I see no reason why Mrs. Jones should not be admitted to the pension rolls.

If you can send us this information by September 24th, she can be included in the pension payments for October, 1940.
