INSTRUCTIONS:

1st. Proof of marriage must be made.
2nd. Do not use the commonly large form of marriage certificate in common vogue throughout the State, suitable only for framing.
Such certificate is entirely too bulky for use in any pension application. A plain certificate written on the back of the copy of marriage license is the proper thing.
3rd. The Ordinary should examine the blank after it is filed in, and see that everything is fully and correctly completed, and the seal affixed, and that back of application, when folded, is filed in.
4th. Pay out no money on this application until approved in the Pension Department and returned to you as your authority to make the payment.
5th. Return this application with your final settlement to the Pension Department.
6th. The widow or person holding her proper power-of-attorney receipts for this pension by signing name, as widow, opposite the name of husband on the soldier pay roll.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of November 22nd, regarding affidavit for Mrs. Wm. Ward received and noted. Because of a fire in 1893 our marriage records are very incomplete in this county and I could find no record what ever of such a marriage. I felt that some of the older people in the Clarkton neighborhood ought to know about such a marriage so I talked to several and they in turn referred me to some one else until I found one of the two actual witnesses, Mr. Tom Priest, who remembered all about the incident. It was a very cold rainy time the swamp was up beyond the foot-logs and Mr. Ward had to carry Miss Duncan to where she could walk without wading so when they came to Mr. Wm. Campbell's the Justice of Peace Mr. Ward was so wet he would not go in the house. Mr. Campbell called up this Mr. Tom Priest and his daughter, and they were the witnesses to the ceremony performed on Mr. Campbell's front porch. Mr. Priest thinks it was in the winter of 90-91 or 91-92.

I am enclosing an affidavit from Mr. Priest to the effect that he was a witness to the marriage.

We hope this information will be satisfactory and if we can help you any further, we will be only too glad to.

Very truly yours,

Application for Pension Due to a Deceased Pensioner

Under the Act of August 15, 1904

To Be Paid to the Ordinary for Funeral Expenses and Expenses of Last Illness

GEORGIA, Candler County.

Personally before me, the Ordinary of said County, comes O Warren of said County, who, after being sworn, on oath says that he knew James Warren of said County, and that he was on the Old Soldiers Pension Roll of Candler County at the time of his death, which occurred in Candler County, in this State, on the 19th day of April, 1921, and that a Pension of One Hundred & Twenty Five Dollars was due him and unpaid at the time of his death. That he left no widow or dependent children surviving him, and no estate of any value sufficient to pay his funeral expenses, which amounted to the sum of $86.38 Dollars, as per sworn statement, itemized, hereto attached.

Sworn to and subscribed before me

AFFIDAVIT OF ORDINARY

I, M. G. Parrish Ordinary of said County, do certify that I personally know O. Warren, who is a resident citizen of said County, and that he is of a truthful and trustworthy character, entitled to full faith and credit.

I also knew James Warren while in life; that he was the same person whose name appears on the Old Soldiers Pension Roll of Candler County, and was paid a Pension of One Hundred Dollars in said County for 1921, and I now believe him to be dead.

Given under my hand and official seal, this 7th day of May, 1921

M. G. Parrish Ordinary,
Candler County.

NOTE.—Require those claiming accounts for expenses of last illness and for funeral expenses, to make out the account in itemized form, giving value of each item and for what. Pending accounts, other than those connected with last illness before death, cannot be paid. All accounts must be made out and sworn to before the Ordinary, in the following form:

"The above and foregoing account is rendered for services in the last illness (or for funeral expenses, as the case may be) of James Warren, who died without owing sufficient property to pay this bill."

Parties who pay such bills must see to it that they are itemized and sworn to as above directed before presenting them for payment by the State.

The Ordinary must see that an affidavit has been made on the face or back of each bill submitted for payment, and must attach such bills to this voucher and send to the Pension Office so that his account may be given credit for the money thus paid out. If you have any doubt about a claim, send it to this Office for instructions.

NOTE—Require those claiming accounts for expenses of last illness and for funeral expenses, to make out the account in itemized form, giving value of each item and for what. Running accounts, other than those connected with last illness before death, cannot be paid. All accounts must be made out and sworn to before the Ordinary, in the following form:

The above and foregoing account is rendered for services in the last illness (or for funeral expenses, as the case may be) of James A. Warren, a person who died without making any other account.

Parties who pay such bills must see to it that they are itemized and sworn to as above directed before presenting them for payment by the State.

The Ordinary must see that an affidavit has been made on the face or back of each bill submitted for payment, and must then attach such bills to this voucher and send to the Pension Office so that his account may be given credit for the money thus paid out. If you have any doubt about a claim, send it to this Office for instructions.
