Roster of James Hordga's Company organized or recruited from WHICH COMPANY WAS KNOWN AS COMPANY E. NO. OF REGIMENT OF GEORGIA 6th Ga

NAME	Time of Enlistment	Rank	Promoted to	When and to What Command Transferred	When and Where Wounded
This Company was principally raised in Chattooga Co. and first became a part of a Cavalry Battalion of Smith's Legion. Commanded by Col. H. R. Hart but in 1863 the battalion was raised to a Regt. and entered the service under Col. Hart was attached to Gen. Perran's Brigade was one of the first Commands in the battle at Chickamauga. Opened that great battle at Say's mill as the tablets on that famous field shows. After the order of the Secretary to unite the Commands of the several States into Brigades the regiment became a part of what was then known as General's Brigade and entered service with that Brigade at Knoxville during the siege of that City by Gen. Langstreet the Regt. then served under Gen. Wheeler up to Surrender. The first service the regiment did was under Gen. W. B. Forrest. The Roster does not contain all of the names of men who belonged to it Only those from Chattooga County -
