Dear Judge Morgan:

Mr. Tom Scott called at this office this afternoon and requested that we send you another application for Mrs. Lucy Dickey. Mrs. Dickey's application was received in this office April 20, 1948, and was disapproved for the reason that Mrs. Dickey swore that she had been a resident of Georgia 10 years and your certificate stated that she had been a resident of Georgia since 1938. Mr. Scott contends that Mrs. Dickey has been a resident of Georgia all her life and never moved from this state to North Carolina.

We are enclosing a Widow's Application, so that if you can conscientiously do so, amend same and return to this office. Mrs. Dickey's application is incomplete as she did not furnish information as to her husband's service in the War Between the States. We are endeavoring to locate Mr. Berrong's pension application in Towns County. With best wishes

Sincerely,
