Judge John W. Clark,
Commissioner of Pensions,
Atlanta, Ga.

My Dear Sir:-

Your letter of August 16th regarding claim for funeral expense of Mrs. Fannie R. Wells, received.

I went down to Stone Mountain yesterday and talked with Dr. Wells, a relative of Mrs. Wells. He told me that Mrs. Wells who was nearly 90 years of age was taken on a visit across the line in Alabama and while there was totally paralyzed in mind and body and was unable to get back home before she died. It was a very short time over twelve months. It was not intended by her to be out of the State but a short time when she left, but on account of her being paralyzed she was unable to be brought back home before the year expired.

She was a deserving old lady, very poor and had no funds from which to pay her funeral expenses. Had she been back in the State she would have been a ward of the State on account of her mental and physical condition.

I trust this is the information you desire and that this funeral expense can be paid as she was absolutely without funds.

Thanking you and with best regards, I am

Yours truly,

V. S. Morgan

 NAVAL RECORDS AND LIBRARY
 NAVY DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, D. C.

24 January 1924.

My dear Senator Harris:

In reply to your letter of 18 January, 1924, addressed to the Bureau of Navigation, requesting the record of W. G. White in the Confederate naval service, the following information is furnished you:-

The rolls of the C.S.S. SAMPSON and C.S.S. ISCHNIGA at the date of the surrender at Augusta, Georgia, have not been found among the records of this office. We regret, therefore, that we are not able to confirm the statement that Mr. White was on one or the other of these vessels. The records of the Confederate Navy on file here are very meager, and we are often unable to establish from them what we have every reason to believe are valid claims of service.

Possibly the following data concerning men of the same surname who served in the Confederate Navy may help identify the W. G. White whose record you are seeking:-

The name of William White is found on the shipping articles, C.S. Navy, as having enlisted May 24, 1861.

The names of William White 1st, and William White, 2nd, appear on the rolls of the C.S.S. ARCTIC for June 1862, July 1862, and April to November, 1864.

The name of William White, landman, appears on the rolls of the Savannah Station (to which station the SAMPSON was attached) April 1 to May 20, 1862.

On 23 January 1923, this office sent to the former Commissioner of Pensions at Atlanta, Ga., a letter similar to this, in reply to a request for the Confederate service of W. G. White.

Very truly yours,

J. P. Sypher
 J. P. Sypher, Commander, U.S.N.,
 Superintendent.

State of Georgia,
County of Morgan.

Before me, A. H. Winter, Ordinary of said County, comes
B. T. Mckay, known to me as a highly honorable citizen of said County, who, after being duly sworn, deposes and says:

That deponent is 73 years of age, and has lived in said County all of his life;

That deponent was personally acquainted with W. G. White, late of Walton County, now deceased, and knows that said White did go away from his home about the year 1863 for the announced purpose of joining the Confederate Navy; that it was generally understood that in the community in which we both lived that said White was a member of the Confederate Navy and that he served faithfully in same until the Surrender of the Confederate Army, in April, 1865;

That deponent cannot swear of his own personal knowledge as a comrade of said White, but does swear, in the light of general local reputation, that said White did perform good service in the Confederate Navy, from about 1863 to April 26th, 1865, and that he was lawfully and regularly surrendered at the end of the war; and that this has been well known and, so far as deponent knows, has never been disputed or questioned;

That deponent does not remember exactly the names of the Navy ships on which said White is credited with having served, but believes they were continuously in the service of the Confederate Government throughout the period of said White's service;

That deponent has frequently heard men who were personally familiar with said White's Navy record during the war speak of his service and everything deponent has ever heard indicated the truth of said White's claims;

That said White having enlisted from his home County and home community and having been in communication with relatives and friends there throughout the war, there is the best of reason to believe that if said White's service record had not been good, some question would have been raised in regard to same, and deponent has never heard anything of the kind;

That deponent makes this affidavit for the purpose of supporting an application now being made to the State of Georgia by the widow of said White for admission to the pension rolls; and for the reason that deponent does not know of anyone now in life who could testify to the facts in the case, from personal knowledge.

M. G. Shephard, known to me as a highly honorable citizen of said County, who, after being duly sworn, deposes and says:

That he is eighty years of age and knew W. G. White from boyhood, and knows that said White went to the Confederate Navy about the year 1863 and that said White was gone until after the Surrender; that he knew said White to be an honest and upright citizen and has never heard his Confederate service record questioned by anyone; that while he was in a different arm of the service, he knows that said White rendered loyal service to the Confederacy; that he was born in Morgan County, Georgia, on a plantation adjoining that on which said White was born;
that he has lived his entire life in Morgan County, except 28 years in Walton County, and that he knew said White intimately until White's death about July, 1865; that he served four years for the Confederacy as a member of Cobb's Legion, and was lawfully surrendered at Appomattox Court House, Virginia, and now draws a pension from the State of Georgia, in Morgan County.

Personally appeared before me, an officer authorized by law to administer oaths E. R. Adams, who being duly sworn says:

That he and William Grant White, at the same time, enlisted in Peacecock's Company, 8th Cavalry, in the Confederate Army, for a period of six months, at the expiration of that time, said Adams joined Hanleiter's Artillery at Savannah, and William G. White joined the Navy and was assigned to duty on the Confederate ship Sampson.

That in the discharge of his duties and while off duty said Adams frequently saw said William G. White, with whom he was personally and intimately associated and of his own knowledge knows the facts herein stated.

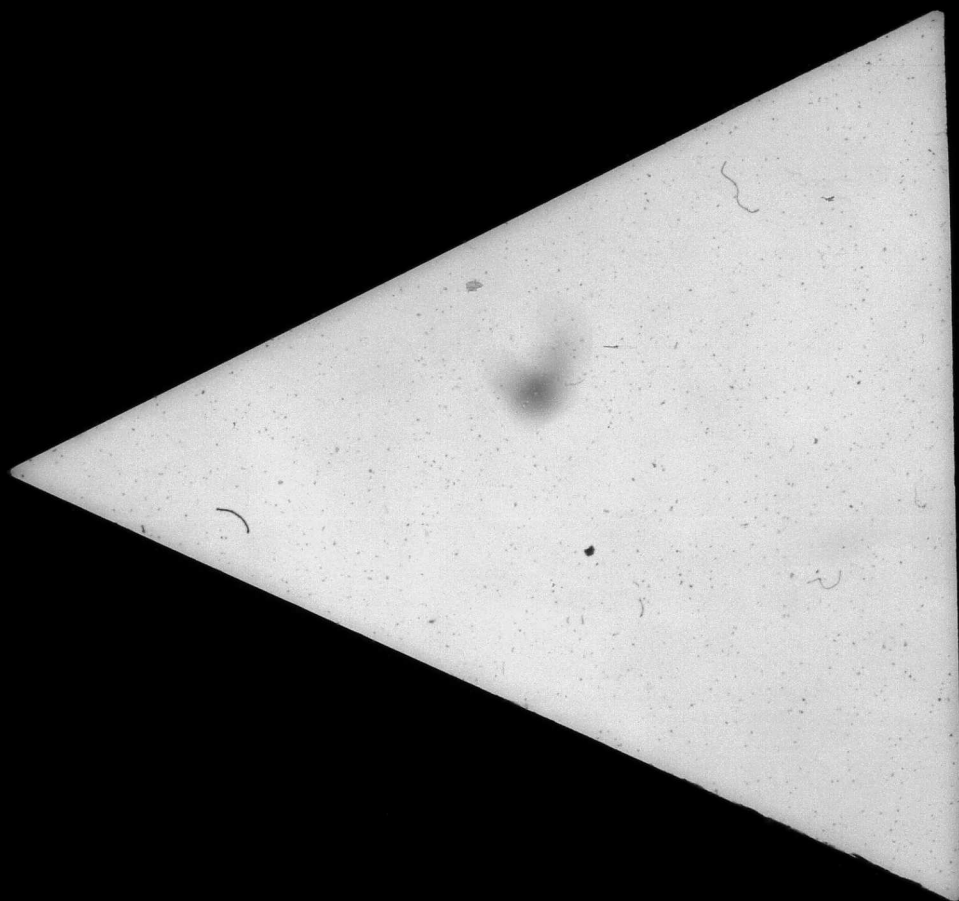

That at the cessation of hostilities, the said William G. White surrendered
