Personally appeared before the undersigned, an Officer under the law, authorized to administer oaths, A. M. Lee who being duly sworn in and says that he is the same person who, has this day filed his application for Pension in the office of the Pension Commission of Georgia and that his taxes as shown by the report of the Ordinary of Douglas County, Ga. was made in the character of a tenant of 60 acres of land, when as a matter of fact he did not own less than 47 acres. His statement did not harm of this mistake until last year when he had the correct survey of Douglas County, Ga. to determine the land and found that he also had 47 acres.

NOTES.

The pension is only payable to certain classes of widows.

Those whose husbands were killed in service.

Those whose husbands died in the army of wounds or disease contracted in the service.

Those whose husbands went to the army and have never been heard from since the war.

Those whose husbands were wounded in the army and have since died from the direct effects of the wounds.

Those whose husbands contracted disease in the service, and who after the war, died of the disease caused by the service. The disease directly causing the death.

No widow is entitled unless she was the wife of the soldier during the war, and has never remarried.

The law does not provide for any one living out of the State of Georgia, or who did not live in the State at the date of the Act.

The facts to establish a claim must be substantiated by the testimony of three witnesses who personally know of the enlistment of the husband and his death and the immediate cause of the death.

Widows who have married since the service of their husbands in the army are not entitled.

There is no need of employing a lawyer or other agent to attend to these claims. The Department will furnish full and specific instructions, and give ample opportunity to every claimant.

If witnesses live in another County from that wherein applicant resides, they must go before the Ordinary and testify. The attestation of a Justice of the Peace or Notary will not answer.

Fill out Power of Attorney authorizing some one who can call at Treasurer's office in Atlanta and receive the money, to receive for same.
