INSTRUCTIONS: For use in all cases where pensioner died after January 1st, had not been out of State longer than twelve months, and died without leaving sufficient property to pay such expenses. The widow of a soldier, if she is living, has prior claim over these expenses, and must make application to receive them. The pensioner must submit accounts for expenses of last illness, and expenses of funeral, to make out their account in fully itemized form, giving each item and the value of it, and each bill. Submitting accounts must be paid only those connected with the last illness, just before death when pensioner was living. This account must be sworn to before the Ordinary, and in the following form: (Do not use the terms "just, true, and correct," etc.) The above and foregoing account is rendered for services in the last illness (or for funeral expenses, as the case may be) of Mrs. M. E. Miller who died without leaving sufficient property to pay this bill. The Ordinary must see to it that each bill is properly legitimate in every respect, and properly sworn to, and an attached receipt to this bill, after this bill has been properly completed as indicated. The completed voucher, this bill and the bill, must be sent to the Pension Office for approval and no money need be paid out until it is returned to you as your authority to make the payment. The Ordinary must see to it that the pensioner and their dependents the money himself and take receipt for it. Should he find for himself, and you write the Pension Office, stating the circumstances in very great detail. Pensioner's children, or children-in-law, must not charge the State for doing only what the law and common decency demand of them. Before this application, and attached bills, with your final settlement to the Pension Office. The Ordinary should see that the bill of this bill, when signed, is filled out. The funeral expenses of deceased "new" pensioners covering all or part of both the 1899 and 1901 pensions require two separate sets of this voucher and bill—one set to be filed in the Pension Office with the pension papers of each year.

GEORGIA, DOUGLAS COUNTY:

Personally came before me, ^{W. J. Holloway}, who after being duly sworn, says on oath, that he is a citizen of Douglas County and has been ^{here} since the war and before.

Deponent says he was a member of Company "C" 80th, Georgia regiment; that he went out with this Company at the beginning of the war, and served all the time until after the war was over. He surrendered with a remnant of the army in the State of North Carolina at Greensboro, on the 26th, day of April, 1865; and that he is personally acquainted with James Miller, ^{he} was a faithful and brave Confederate soldier, never flinched from duty, perhaps he was absent without leave, for a day or two foraging. I know of my own personal knowledge, that he never did desert his Company, that he surrendered at the same time deponent surrendered, on the 26th, day of April, 1865.

Said Miller received his payrole at the same time deponent received his. They both came home together from Greensboro, North Carolina. After the surrender they were both given payrole papers at the same time. Deponent has often heard Miller talk over his travels from North Carolina home, after the war.

Deponent further says, that there was but few of their company and regiment present, at the time Johnson surrendered. Deponent's recollection is that ^{Mr. Goss} Mr. Goss and a number of others were captured in Atlanta, or near Atlanta, when the fighting was going on, a part of their Company was captured, and ^{Goss} he did not return back to the command ^{any more}. Deponent is ^{not} ~~positive~~ ^{not} certain about this, ^{but at the time} and from his best recollection, he is positive that he surrendered at the same time that James Miller did, as above stated. He makes this Affidavit, so that justice may be done in the premises.

GEORGIA, DOUGLAS COUNTY.

Personally came before me, T. M. Jones, who, on oath, says that he lives in Douglas County; that he is well acquainted with ~~W. M.~~ Mitchell, and also, J. A. Renfro of the same County; that deponent and J. A. Renfro were both in the same Company, to-wit, Company I in the 7th, Georgia regiment and served in said Company from 1862 to the close of the war; that ~~W. M.~~ Mitchell from 1862 to the close of the war was not a member of that Company or regiment. He was transferred in 1863 to a Company in the 8th, Georgia Regiment, and these regiments were not close to each other all ~~the time~~ in the Virginia Army. I was in the same mood, and with J. A. Renfro all the time until the close of the war. I know just as much about ~~W. M.~~ Mitchell, ^{as he does} was with him as often as Renfro. I know positively that he was not a member of our Company of the 7th, regiment from 1863 to the close of the war. I was right with Renfro all the time, and I do not know, neither does he know whether or not Mitchell deserted or was absent without leave from his Company and regiment. It was impossible for either of us to know anything about it.

Sworn to and subscribed before me,

this the 15 day of January, 1910.

Personally saw and knew T. M. Mitchell, who after being duly sworn, says to oath, that it is untrue, that he ever deserted the Confederate Army during the war between the states.

That he was a member of the 5th Ga. Regiment and Company _____, and that he served until the early part of 1865, or perhaps the latter part of 1864 in the Virginia Army. That he was sent to the Hospital in Richmond, on account of being unable to serve and when Lee went to evacuate Richmond, ordered down to the Hospital for all who could possibly leave, to be so; that Gen. Lee would be compelled to surrender Richmond.

Dependent left there hardly able to be up at all, and worked his way out through Virginia, keeping in the rear of Lee's army as best as he could, and after Gen. Lee surrendered, he went out into N. C. and was sick there. The Yankees captured him, and he escaped from them, still unable to do anything, taking several sick again, remaining sick 1 or 2 or 3 months after Lee's surrender in N. C., and he didn't get home until after the war, about a month or two. He was hardly able to be up when he reached home.

It is absolutely false from being told to him, that dependent deserted the army, or was ever absent without leave.

The facts attending his service in the army are stated in his own affidavit or application, and the witnesses to his application, to wit, John B. D. mean, et al. and the statement made in his application and in the affidavits to the application are true.

Permanently came before F. No.
Watched him after being duly sworn by an oath that he first went into the Va Army at the time stated in his original statement for Pension and served for two years about twelve months in the 20 Regiment of Va. and was transferred from this Regiment to the 8th Va Regiment and served in the last named Regiment
up to the time he was sent to the Jackson Hospital at Richmond Va. and past before Lee surrounded Richmond I left the Hospital and traveled alone in the vicinity of N. C. where days would not travel but a mile or two. I took children and have an account I suppose from experience having the Hospital before I was able to go and lying out on the ground to keep from being captured by the Federal Army where I would take shelter of children which was obtained by which from for sometimes 4 to 10 hours
I was hardly able to stand up often had to lay out on the ground as ground and no place to stay and as much I could not travel but a short distance at a time, I finally got into N. C. and stayed at a Name from people and cannot now remember their Name
I have tried to find them since the war
I was back at their Name for a long time. Most of the time I was alone and don't know what happened ~~scattered~~ only as they told me. Before I got able to leave Lee had surrounded and when I got as I could come along I left to try to get home. I was so feeble I can not go for at a time I finally reached home and continued sick for a long time. No man can forget border for his Country and stood to the Southern Army closer than I did. and some time later over the Appalachian in and while in the Army, I am now in my 80 year of my age unable to work and can see but little with my eyes. I suffered as yet so I get it from other my wife is also sick and has no property she is 73 years old and if any in Ga needs a Pension it is defunct. I want to go to the poorhouse and like to be put in the Soldiers Home

I don't expect to live long. and if the State aid me still it will have to do it soon

Those whose husbands died in the army of wounds or disease contracted in the service.

Those whose husbands went to the army and have never been heard from since the war.

Those whose husbands were wounded in the army and have since died from the direct effects of the wounds.

Those whose husbands contracted disease in the service, and who, after the war, died of the disease caused by the service. The disease directly causing the death.

No widow is entitled unless she was the wife of the soldier during the war, and has never remarried.

The law does not provide for any one living out of the State of Georgia, or who did not live in the State at the date of the Act.

The facts to establish a claim must be substantiated by the testimony of three witnesses who personally know of the enlistment of the husband and his death and the immediate cause of the death.

Widows who have married since the service of their husbands in the army are not entitled.

There is no need of employing a lawyer or other agent to attend to these claims. The Department will furnish full and specific instructions, and give ample opportunity to every claimant.

If witnesses live in another County from that wherein applicant resides, they must go before the Ordinary and testify. The attestation of a Justice of the Peace or Notary will not answer.

Fill out Power of Attorney authorizing some one who can call at Treasurer's office in Atlanta and receive the money, to receipt for same.

Fill out the "directions" below Power of Attorney, so that your Agent will know where and how to send the money.
