Before me, J. Randolph

Ordinary of said County, in person appeared J. H. Hedges, well known to me to be a credible witness, who on oath says, that he was a member of Co. C.
16th Ga. Battalion early in the Confederate service. That Lem E. Hillborn, Captain of Jackson County Ga., was also a member of said Battalion, and enlisted in said service in August or June 1862. He thinks in month of Sept. 1863, in the Battle of Stone Springs, Ga., said Lem E. Hillborn, he went into that fight and was killed in battle as was believed by all his comrades. He had to retreat that night after the battle leaving his dead in the field. He all believed that said Hillborn was left there dead. He has never been heard from since that day. Defendant is not personally acquainted with the soldier of said soldier.
