Georgia, Gilmer County:

Personally came before the undersigned attesting officer D. E. Watkins Sr. who on each says:

I am well acquainted with Mrs.

Elizabeth C. Call, widow of Joseph Call a state pensioner on the Disable pension roll. I know that Mrs. Elizabeth C. Call has no property and has not had since last may. Every dollar she had was exhausted at that time. Her neighbors helped her with contributions after she had exhausted what she had. I saw them give her the money. She is old and diseased and totally unable to support herself by labor of any kind.

ELLIJAY, GA., Oct 16, 1907

Hon. J. W. Lindsay,
Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find amendment just as required by you when I was in Atlanta a week ago. Dr. E. W. Watkins, Jr., was the Lieutenant Commanding the Applicant Oliver Southern when he was shot in the battle of Rensselaerville, Tenn., and also the physician who examined him. You will remember that this is the man whose mind is almost gone. His claim is one of great merit.

We have researched the Community for evidence of Joseph Cotton's enlistment and last service and found it as you required. This makes very feeble and there is no doubt as to his husband's service as set out.

As to the case of W. A. DeFord, the other applicant who we found down his camp these prison records could be examined there was no one with him in prison from here that knew him then but there is an ex. sol. sent here, who says Mr. DeFord can tell all about the prison there and many occurrences that show he was there. If the U.S. army record does not show him there, please let me submit these facts.

Very respectfully, T. H. Tabor, Ordinary
