- 2nd. Require those claiming expenses of last illness and funeral, to make out their accounts in fully itemized form, giving each item and the value of it, and each date.
- 3rd. Running accounts cannot be paid—only those connected with the last illness, just before death when pensioner grew worse to die.
- 4th. Each account must be sworn to before the Ordinary, and in the following form: (Do not use the terms: "just, true, due, unpaid," etc.)
"The above and foregoing account is rendered for services in the last illness (or for funeral expenses, as the case may be) of _____ who died without owning sufficient property to pay this bill."
- 5th. The Ordinary must see to it that each bill is perfectly legitimate in every respect, and properly sworn to, and all attached neatly to this blank, after this blank has been properly completed as indicated.

- 7th. The Ordinary signs pay roll, as Ordinary, for the pension and then disburses the money himself and takes receipts.

OFFICE OF

R. J. GOBLE, ORDINARY
GILMER COUNTY, GEORGIA

ELLIJAY, GA. August 21st, 1928.

Hon. John M. Clark,

Commissioner of Pensions,

Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:

In regard to the application of J. H. Kell, for nursing bill for S.C. Conn deceased.

Mrs. S.C. Conn, never had any children and lived with J. H. Kell, most of the time since her husband's death. Mrs. Conn was a aunt of Mrs. Kell the wife of J. H. Kell.

Mrs. Conn, was sick for a long time and had to be waited upon, she was helpless for two or three months before she died, and they had to hire extra help for part of this time, as they had sickness and one death in their own family during the time, if this expense can be legally paid they sure deserve it.

I intended to write you a letter when I made the application but overlooked it.

Very truly yours,

R. J. Goble,
Ordinary.

August 23, 1938.

Hon. R. J. Cable,
Ordinary of Gilmer County,
Ellijay, Ga.

My dear Judge:

I have under consideration the claim for funeral expenses of S. C. Conn. and note with the other accounts one filed by J. W. Kell for $27.50 for nursing. Please advise if Mr. Kell was a relative of the deceased. The State does not make provision for the payment for nursing performed by members of the family. Kindly let me hear from you about this.

With kind regards,

Very truly yours,

Commissioner of Pensions
