Mrs. Mary Jane Tiller, of the County of Oglethorpe

State of Georgia, is the widow of Jasper M. Tiller, who was a soldier in Company K of the 34th Regiment of Geo. militia Volunteers.

That said soldier enlisted in the service of the Confederate States (or the Georgia State Troops) on or about the 10th day of July, 1864. That while in said service, or by reason of said service in the Army, he lost his life as follows: while engaged in The Battle at Macen Ga. on the 31st day of July 1864.

was attacked with severe illness, while Defendants do not swear positively of their own knowledge that Mr. Tiller died there, for the reason that they did not see him after he was dead, yet Defendants do swear positively that Mr. Tiller belonged to their command - that he was in the engagement at Macen on the day named, that he was collected as a sick man - (which was an intensely hot day), that he had been seen by him in the corner of the pen, when the command was forced to leave that spot when it was known that he died the following day of the same illness, Defendants do swear that Jasper M. Tiller has never been heard of since that time, and have no hesitation in saying, that to the best of their knowledge and belief Jasper

M. Tiller died at the time & place stated, and from the cause stated.

We further swear that Mrs. Mary Jane Tiller was the wife of said soldier during the service, and that she has not intermarried since his death, and that she resides in Oglethorpe County of the State of Georgia.
