Dear Sir - The enclosed application for an Aged Pension is in my judgment a worthy and meritorious one. I have known Mr. Turner for forty years or more. He has always been a hard working and moral man, raised a large family of sons and daughters on rented lands and they are all good citizens and all fine people. The old man has done the State some service. I took my horse & buggy and drove down to his house some 15 miles to take this application. I found him very feeble, hardly able to get about at all, and almost blind. He has no property except what little furniture, bedding &c. is usually found in a poor man's house and one old horse, practically worthless, and this is what he relies on for support.

Dear Friend

Enclosed herewith you find Pension application of R. H. Turner who I spoke to you about last fall. The old man is entirely dependent and exceedingly feeble and certainly indigent. He has had no property for several years but some stock and household furniture.
The former by wear & tear is now reduced to a single old horse upwards of twenty years old and worthless.
The latter for same reason is of very little value and of no use to support him. He is a good man, has been a faithful citizen and has raised a large family who are all good people.
He feels humiliated by applying for a pension but I urged his application knowing he was worthy & knowing that this petition will relieve him of his utter dependence which is so galling to the spirit of all honorable men even though they are so kindly cared for as in this case by their (OVER) own children - your consideration of this matter will be awaited with patience

Yours &c

C. M. Welch
