My Dear Sir

Enclosed herewith you have the application of A. M. Barcliver for Pension to which my name appears as witness. and I would state further that his wife also is in bad health and has been unable for some months to make a full support. They have been paid no house rent for several months which fact is purely charity on the part of the Land Lord. His Physicians have been of the opinion for more than a year that his case was hopeless and that the nature of his malady was such that he was liable to die at any time.

And further it is very clear to me that but for the exercise of neighborly charity he would have at this time been compelled to go to the Asylum for the Poor in this county.

I write you knowing that by virtue of your position you will become cognizant of the facts in the case and give them such direction as public interest demands.

Yours &c

C. M. Witcher
