In the matter of the Deceased alleged to have been taken by him. It is true that in January 1887 he made an exemption of Personalty in and for the protection of his family, under the following circumstances, during the year 1887. He made an account with Litter Bros. in Pointe Blanche that he was in the first said year to pay all his indebtedness to said Litter Bros. That said Litter Bros were taking steps to keep in all he had. Applicant says that in order to protect and save something for his family to live on he had the reputation of being under the law that said exemption consisted of 35 Bushels Corn 400 pounds Potatoes, one Sack of Flour with which with the said family and bedding a very poor man might have.

Applicant further means that this small amount of personalty has been consumed long ago, and that he nor his family have no Deceased.

Applicant claims that he is entitled under the law to this Pension for the reasons that he is physically unable to do any manual labor and refers to special affidavit of Dr. W. D. Farnish to sustain this statement, and further, that he has no property of any kind at this time as will fully appear by reference to applicant's heretofore submitted and sworn to special affidavit further refers to the records in the ordinary office as the amount and kind of his said exemption of Personalty.

Dear Sir,
I submit
some proof bearing on Francis Clavin
of N. H. Vaughan - In addition to what is here shown I will state that Vaughan
went 8 or 12 miles
to get physicians to make affidavit for him - while there are three physicians living in three or four miles of him -
It is true also that Mr. Wee, one of Vaughan's witnesses, says that he (Wee) signs for all who come to him, because they will not get any thing &c - I have been informed that other physicians

are doing the same - This tends to create dissatisfaction among the lawyers

Mr. Johnson went 25 miles to get a physician to make affirmation for him -
Will submit some later on his case

I call your attention to the Claims of C. H. Harckman and J. H. Wright - Harckman owns a nice farm - and is considered a substantial farmer - whose credit is good all through this section - He has a large family of grown children.

Wright has but little money - but is able to work - Has several grown sons who stand ready to aid him -

The family physician of their last names, refused to swear for them.

We hope the law will be repealed on emergency by their next legislation -

Hon. C. H. Mitchem will write you touching the operation of the law in this County -

Yours truly
