Hon. Geo. W. Seidley

Pension Com Atlanta Ga.

Dear Sir -

I return herewith the aff. of Geo. P. Weaver with the additional proof required - the old man has been put to a good deal of trouble to get up this proof, inasmuch as his Comrades were mostly in North Ga. and it took him some time to locate Col. Jones, his Lieut. Col. who was with him at the time - This is, I think, a very deserving old man, and in the depths of poverty - Last summer he came to me, and said that unless I could assist him in some way, I would have to get him in the County Poor House, feeling as I did that he had made a strong case for pension, I authorized him to trade 30 worth of provisions in one of our stores on my credit, upon the idea that it would be paid from his pension, if he lived, and if he died it would fall on me.
