Dear Sir:-

Your letter enclosing the application of Mark H. Young for Pension, has been received. I thank you for sending me the application and herewith return the same to you as requested.

It seems that the application was never completed.

Mr. Young will make a new application some time soon, which I will send you.

With best wishes, I am

Yours truly,

Joel Cloud

Hon. Jno. W. Lindsey,

Atlanta, Ga.

- - Sir:-

Enclosed herewith I hand you two applications for Pensions.

One of Charles T. Hardman, and the other Mark H. Young.

In reference to the latter will say that Mr. Young made an application about two years ago, in which application he relied upon his service in ~~the Savannah Company~~ ~~xxxxxxx~~ only one company. By this new application, which he desires to supplant the old with, you will observe that he served in two companies during the war. In other words he wants the proofs in this application to used in connection with the proofs heretofore made. I don't think that there is any doubt about his service, and that he made a good soldier. He is now certainly in a very bad condition physically, as well as the other applicant Mr. Hardman, and I hope that the proofs in both cases will authorize you to place them on the respective rolls.

With best wishes, I am,

Yours very truly,

Joel Cloud

Dec. 3rd. 1904.

Hon. John W. Lindsey,
Pension Commissioner,
Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir :--

Some time since I wrote you in regard to the pension application of Mr. and J. Young of this county. Mr. Young tells me that all of the pensions except his has been returned here to the Ordinary as proved. Mr. Young's application was sent or filed in your office in October 1903 and the same was too late to be acted upon last year, but you said that you would take up the matter this fall. You will remember that Mr. Nat. D. Arnold and myself both wrote you about this matter some time since.

I know Mr. Young to be a man that is very much in need of a pension and truly deserves to be pensioned.

I beg to assure you that I will very much appreciate it if you will take up the matter of Mr. Young's pension and if possible grant it.

Thanking you in advance for any kindness you may show Mr. Young in the matter and assuring you that I will treat the same as a personal favor to myself.

Your friend,
