STATE OF GEORGIA,

County of Barrow

in and for said County of

I, W. H. Harrison, Ordinary of the County of Barrow, State of Georgia, hereby certify that I am acquainted with Mrs. M. M. Armstrong, the applicant for a pension in this case, and know, from my own knowledge, or from positive proof presented to me by reputable witnesses, that she resides in this County, and that she resided in the State of Georgia on December 23d, 1890, and has not lived out of the State since that date. I also certify that the witnesses whose testimony she presents to sustain her claim are known to me to be truthful witnesses, entitled to full faith and credit as such. I am fully satisfied that this claim is made in good faith, and that I have caused the applicant and the witnesses to read or hear read the proofs they sign.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of my office, this, the 7th day of April, 1891.

Form No. 4.

NOTES.

The pension is only payable to certain classes of widows.

Those whose husbands were killed in service.

Those whose husbands died in the army of wounds or disease contracted in the service.

Those whose husbands went to the army and have never been heard from since the war.

Those whose husbands were wounded in the army and have since died from the direct effects of the wounds.

Those whose husbands contracted disease in the service, and who after the war, died of the disease caused by the service. The disease directly causing the death.

No widow is entitled unless she was the wife of the soldier during the war, and has never remarried.

The law does not provide for any one living out of the State of Georgia, or who did not live in the State at the date of the Act.

The facts to establish a claim must be substantiated by the testimony of three witnesses who personally know of the enlistment of the husband and his death and the immediate cause of the death.

Widows who have married since the service of their husbands in the army are not entitled.

There is no need of employing a lawyer or other agent to attend to these claims. The Department will furnish full and specific instructions, and give ample opportunity to every claimant.

If witnesses live in another County from that wherein applicant resides, they must go before the Ordinary and testify. The attestation of a Justice of the Peace or Notary will not answer.

Fill out Power of Attorney authorizing some one who can call at Treasurer's office in Atlanta and receive the money, to receipt for same.

Fill out the "direction" below Power of Attorney, so that your Agent will know where and how to send the money.

By order of the Governor,

W. H. HARRISON,

Sec. Ex. Department.

Affidavit for Three Witnesses.

Form No. 2.

STATE OF GEORGIA,

County of Barrow

In person came before me, the undersigned Ordinary in and for said County, witnesses N. J. Collins, W. R. McMillan

and J. C. Wofford (each known to said Attesting Officer as truthful, reliable and reputable citizens), who severally say under oath, that, from their own personal knowledge, Mrs. M. M. Armstrong, of the County of Barrow State of Georgia, is the widow of D. C. Armstrong, who was a soldier in Company A of the 40 Regiment of Ca Volunteers.

That said soldier enlisted in the service of the Confederate States (or the Georgia State Troops) on or about the 10 day of March, 1862. That while in said service, or by reason of said service in the Army, he lost his life as follows: He had fever while in Camp at Knoxville Tennessee; that he was sent home on furlough; that the fever settled in his hip after which time he was never well, while we knew him; although he was weak and sick he went to Vicksburg Mississippi; but was discharged and sent home because he was unable to do duty; that the time he was sent home from Nashville was in June or July 1863; that he never was stout after he had the fever at Knoxville Tennessee 1862; that he was a stout and healthy man when he enlisted in the service; that he was sick when I last knew him; that the said Armstrong was lost his health by reason of service or of some while in the service.

We further swear that Mrs. M. M. Armstrong was the wife of said soldier during the service, and that she has not intermarried since his death, and that she resides in Paulding County of the State of Georgia.
