Ca 1767, James Mercer, Sr. removed to Georgia, settled Wilkes Co., Ga.; removed to Brier Creek, Burke Co., Ga., residence during the Revolution. Upwards sixty years beginning of Revolution, he embraced the cause with patriotic zeal, and two sons, Jacob and Thomas, were in active service nearly the whole war. Ga.'s Roster of Revolution of Rev. gives 4 sons. Families left in care of aged parent. James Mercer removed from Burke Co. to Wilkes Co., Ga. where he died at home of son, Silas, in 77th years of age in year 1790.

Before death, he and his wife became Baptists. Two sons Silas and Thomas were Baptist ministers.

Thomas Mercer aided in formation of Mississippi Association, Moderator in 1811. While on journey to Creek Indians in 1817 with Benjamin Davis, Thomas died and was buried among strangers. (From Life of Jesse Mercer by C.D. Mallory, 1844 - Jesse Mercer nephew of Thomas & Jacob - see Ch. 2, Life of Jesse Mercer, Mallory.)

 General, NSDAR, "emigrant John Mercer & wife, Sallie Brently, from New York to Va, to Pa, to Va, & 'James went further west', data never published but very straight."
 She states information from Mallory in which he says family of Thomas remained with father James, & James resided Brier Creek, Burke Co.

Also in a letter, Mercers are Scotch. Gen. Hugh "Mercer not born in America, surgeon to "Prince Charlie"; foe service in Scotland became general in America. James Mercer from same ancestor & same clan in Scotland, & used the same arms.
