A PRAYER FOR MY PASTOR

Our Father:

Let me be a pillar of strength to help hold him up and not a thorn in his flesh to sap his strength, nor a burden on his back to pull him down.

Let me support him without striving to possess him.

Let me lift his hands without placing shackles around them.

Let me give my help, that he may devote more time to working for the salvation of others and less time in gratifying my vanity. Let me work for him as the pastor of all the members and not compel him to spend precious time in bragging on me.

Let me be unselfish in what I do for him and not selfish in demanding that he do more for me.

Let me strive to serve him and the church more and be happy as he serves me less and the church and others more.

—The Evangel.

SELF

"Master where shall I work today?"
And my love flowed warm and free;
And He pointed out a tiny plot,
And He said, "Tend that for Me."
But I answered quickly, "Oh, no, not there

Not any one could see
No matter how well my task was done;
Not that little place for me!"
And His voice when He spoke, it was not stern,

But He answered me tenderly:
"Disciple, search that heart of thine;
Are you working for them or for Me?
Nazareth was just a little place,
And so was Gallilee."

EARLE WESTER

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cherry smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you—oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,

Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away.

—James Whitcomb Riley.
