INTRODUCTION.

---

When the Yorkshire Parish Register Society commenced its work by the publication in 1899 of the Parish Registers of St. Michael le Belfrey, York, the Editor of the first volume, in his preface, claimed precedence for that parish on account of its connection with the Minster, and prominent position in the York social world of former days. Now, that after a lapse of ten years devoted to the publication of Registers all over the County, the Society has decided to publish the Registers of another York Parish, similar reasons may be given for selecting the Parish of St. Martin, Coney Street, as the next to be dealt with of the many City Parishes. Just as the Minster stands in the Parish of St. Michael le Belfrey, so the Mansion House and Guildhall stand in that of St. Martin, and if the former was pre-eminent in the ecclesiastical life of the City, the latter was no less intimately associated with its civic and social life. Thus, the names of several Lord Mayors, Recorders, and others, celebrated among the civil authorities of the City, will be found in this volume, and it is interesting to notice, now that the custom has fallen into desuetude, that the quaint old rhyme :—

“ My Lord is a Lord for a year and a day,
But she is a Lady for ever and aye,” is fully borne out by several entries in these Registers where the Ladies Brooke, Cornwell, Maye, Towne, and others, are given that title at their deaths many years after holding office.

Prominent, too, are the records of many families of high position in the County, who had town houses in York—some in Coney Street and Lendal—just as it is still the custom of notable county families to maintain a town house in the larger London of to-day. Among York residences of this kind may be mentioned that of the Darley's, of Aldby, which was situate in Coney Street, and after being tenanted by Barnard Ellis, Esq., Recorder, Mrs. Mathew, the widow of Archbishop Toby Matthews, Alderman James Brooke, his son Sir John Brooke, and their descendants, is now occupied by Mr. T. Wilson, stationer, and where the beautiful old ceilings are still preserved. Records of the above families, when they inhabited this house, occur many times in the following Registers, as do also several references to the well-known Yorkshire names of Constable, Fairfax, Frankland, Ingleby, Sheffield, Vavasor, and Wentworth, besides many others. Of local interest, particularly, are the entries relating to Sir Thomas Widdrington, the celebrated Commonwealth Recorder of the City, whose MS. History of York, rejected by a soulless Corporation, became the foundation for the monumental “Eboracum” of Drake.

As to the name of the Church and Parish, it is well known that it existed prior to the Norman Conquest, for in the Domesday Inquest of 1087, occurs the sentence “Gospatrick habet ecclesiam Sancti Martini in Conyng strete.” Of course, the present “Coney Street” is simply a corruption of the Anglo-Saxon “Conyng” or King Street; but this corruption seems to be of considerable age, for nowhere in these Registers is the older form of the name to be found, while examples of the variant spellings, Cone, Coni, Conye, and Cunneye, frequently occur. The street contained the chief York Inns, and of these the three most celebrated were the Black Swan, the George, and the Three Conyes. Of these, the Black Swan alone remains, with something like the glory of past reputation still clinging around it to-day; the George, a famous hostelry of former times, well known by Cave's beautiful drawing of its exquisite Gothic archway, was ruthlessly demolished to make room for modern drapery about fifty years ago; while the Three Conyes has belonged to the past long before living memory. Strange to say, Drake refers to it as the "Three Crowns," but the references in St. Martin's Registers are distinctly to the "Three Conyes," and thereby hangs the interesting tale of a name corruption similar to that of the street itself, for we cannot doubt that the name originally had reference to the Three Kings of Eastern scriptural fame.

Hard by the Church of St. Martin, Coney Street, stand to-day the printing offices of the Yorkshire Herald, and it would seem that the Parish has long been the home of the Press in York, for the names Cæsar Ward, Cæsar Peacock, and William Blanchard, connected with the York Courant, which preceded the Herald of to-day, will be seen many times in this volume.

The Parish Registers of St. Martin, Coney Street, commence in 1557, and are here transcribed up to the year 1812, when a new Act of Parliament regulating the keeping of such Registers all over the Country came into force. They are contained during that period in seven books, which may be briefly summarized as follows:—

Book I, the oldest, is a folio consisting of paper leaves, and commencing with Christenings on the 4th October, 1557. These are continued to the 28th February, 1687—8, when the Marriages are entered from 3rd October, 1557, to 10th January, 1687—8. Then follow the Burials, which begin on the 30th August, 1557, the earliest date in the book, with the burial of "Sir Robert ffoxe, our parsonn," and continue to the 6th April, 1687, when they cease. The entries are written in English throughout, and in a fairly good hand. After the commencement of Book II, under the Commonwealth régime, the same entries continued to be made in this book, though towards the end of the time covered they assume more and more the character of hastily scribbled copies.

Book II, is a folio of parchment leaves (with paper ones inserted) commencing, at the time of the Commonwealth change, on the 22nd September, 1653, when an official Registrar was appointed in lieu of the old ecclesiastical authorities. Fortunately, in the case of St. Martins, this official was the ci-devant Parish Clerk (Robert Marsh), so that the work of keeping the Register continued without break with the addition of the new requirements of the law. This volume commences with Baptisms, which are continued over the Restoration period to the 24th October, 1680. Then follow Marriages from 26th September, 1654, to 26th August, 1680, and Burials from 23rd September, 1653, to 11th November, 1680, when the entries cease. After this time the bulky parchment Register, or Book III, becomes the chief, and for over a century the sole authority.

Book III is a stout quarto volume consisting entirely of parchment leaves. All the entries in Book I are here repeated, but in many cases without descriptions of trade or calling. The volume commences with a table of "Fees due to the Minster and Clarke 1557," from which it is interesting to learn that the Judges were expected to give, "if they come to our Church," 5s. od., and the Sheriffs also 5s. od. The Baptisms in this book are continued to the end of 1763, as are also the Marriages and Burials, although a special new Marriage Register book commences in 1754.

Book IV is a Marriage Register only, being one of the printed folio books of forms issued by Thos. Lowndes, bookseller, London, so often found among Parish Registers. These contain spaces for description of parties, date, whether by banns or licence, and the signatures of the officiating Minister, parties, and witnesses. Each form is numbered, and the 383 entries extend from 4th June, 1754, to 4th April, 1801, when all the forms in the book were exhausted.

Book V is a folio of parchment leaves in which Baptisms from 1st February, 1784, to 6th July, 1806, are entered at one end of the book, and, at the other end, Burials from 30th January, 1784, to 20th May, 1806. It is written throughout in an unusually good hand, and after the Burials are entered four or five Parish Terriers, the oldest of which, dated 17th May, 1764, is here transcribed. The others, taken in 1786, 1809, and after the limits of this volume, are very similar in character.

Book VI is a folio Marriage Register only, consisting of printed forms similar to Book IV. It is, however, much larger in size, measuring 19 x 13 inches, and contains four forms on a page. Out of 188 pages only 26 are used, in which are entered 102 Marriages, from 14th May, 1801, to 30th November, 1812, after which a new and different style of book was adopted.

Book VII (which completes the series here transcribed) is a Register of Baptisms and Burials, printed in the Statutory form. The Baptisms are placed at one end of the book and the Burials at the other. Columns are provided, in the former case for child's christian name and surname, father's name and parentage, mother's name and parentage, date of birth, and date of baptism—particulars which will rejoice the soul of the genealogist. The Baptisms entered are from August, 1806, to December, 1812. The Burial Register has also columns giving christian and surname, parentage, dates of death and burial and distemper, and the entries extend from 15th April, 1806, to 31st December, 1811, when a new book was adopted, several leaves in the middle of this volume remaining unused.

All the books are well preserved, and bound in substantial leather bindings.

The best thanks of the Society are due to the Rev. George Trundle, M.A., the Vicar of the Parish, for permission to print the Registers, and also for his courtesy in giving every facility to the Editor for transcribing the books.

The succession of Vicars of the Church during the period of time covered by the Registers is as follows:—

- 1557. Robert Foxe (buried 30th August. Regr.)
- 1557. Will. Dakyns (instituted 3rd September. Torre).
- Thomas Grayson (buried 8th December, 1578. Regr.)
- 1578. James Foxgale (inst. 9th September. Torre. Buried, see Regr.)
- 1614. Thomas Haynes (,, 15th December. „ „ „ „ )
- 1620. John Johnson (,, 17th January. „ „ „ „ )
- 1634. Will. Smyth, M.A. (inst. 11th March. Torre).
- 1635. Arthur Scott, S.T.B. (inst. 24th September. Torre. Buried, see Regr.)
- 1640. Will. Smyth, M.A. (inst. 23rd May. Torre.)
- 1644. William Corney (see Regr., p. 100. Not in Torre).
- 1661. Matthew Bigg (inst. 21st February. Torre).
- 1666. Joshua Stopford (inst. 26th March. Torre. Buried, see Regr.)
- 1675. Will. Staynforth (,, 29th October. „ „ „ „ )
- 1715. Valentine Naison, M.A. (died 27th, buried 28th February, 1722—3, at St. Martin's).

1723. John Wright.
 1729. Richard Warnford (inst. 14th June. Dean and Chapter Act Book.)
 1755. Joseph Bridges (,, 15th December. „ „ )
 1785. Richard Forrest (,, 17th March. „ „ )
 1793. Thomas Pickard (,, 18th April. „ „ )
 1801. James Richardson (,, 29th August. „ „ )
 1803. William Bulmer (,, 11th November. „ „ )

By way of carrying further back the Burial records of the Parish, this is a fitting place in which to give a list of persons who by Will desired to be buried in the Church or Churchyard prior to the commencement of the Registers. These names are taken in a few cases from the Torre MSS. and other sources, but chiefly from the first four volumes of Wills in the York District Registry, which I have personally examined. A more detailed examination of the vols. 5 to 15 than I have been able to make, would probably yield further names, especially in the first half of the 16th century, and the decades immediately preceding the commencement of the Parish Registers.
