PREFACE.

IN continuing the Index of York Wills, hitherto so ably and conscientiously edited by Dr. FRANCIS COLLINS, to whom the members of the Society and others interested in this work are under a deep debt of gratitude for the immense industry and the skill which he has devoted to the task, the compiler of the present volume asks the indulgence of the subscribers if it should not quite equal in accuracy those which have gone before. He trusts, however, that in spite of its deficiencies this index may be found useful.

As is well known all wills between 1652 and 1660 were proved in London. The present volume, which covers an important period, begins with the re-opening of the Courts at York in October, 1660. The first probates were granted on Oct. 9, for the deaneries of Doncaster and Holderness, and later in the same month for the other deaneries, except Retford, Buckrose and Newark, where none were granted until Nov. 15, Dec. 19, and Dec. 31 respectively. A brief examination at once shows that, in addition to the usual business of the Courts, a considerable number of grants were made in the estates of persons who must have died during the Commonwealth period, but whose representatives had not proved their wills in London.

The annexed table gives the approximate number of grants of probate and administration in the Exchequer Court of York for twelve deaneries¹ in the first, second, third and fifth years from the date of the first grant made for each deanery after the re-opening of the Court.

¹ The figures for the deaneries of the Ainsty, City and Craven cannot be given, as the Act Book for these deaneries is missing.

iv.

Deanery	1st year	2nd year	3rd year	5th year
Buckrose	24	40	9	9
Bulmer	92	60	54	51
Cleveland	130	59	89	53
Dickering	60	143	90	50
Doncaster	152	137	171	192
Harthill	187	163	98	112
Holderness	211	68	59	43
Newark	143	57	25	42
Nottingham	169	123	57	46
Pontefract	121	260	308	228
Retford	126	80	54	29
Ryedale	39	116	55	37
Total	1454	1306	1069	892

If the deaneries of Doncaster and Pontefract are excluded from this table the totals are still more striking.

	1st year	2nd year	3rd year	5th year
Total	1181	909	590	472

It will be observed that in some deaneries the great increase came in the first year, in others in the second year, whilst in the fifth year the number of grants may be regarded as normal. The exceptions are the deaneries of Doncaster and Pontefract, in the first of which the grants maintain a fairly steady level, although they reach their highest point in the fifth year. In the latter deanery the number in the fifth year is almost double that in the first, whilst they reach their highest point in the third year. The total for these two deaneries is as under :

	1st year	2nd year	3rd year	5th year
Total	273	397	479	420

A reference to Vol I. of the Record Series will show that the yearly average of Yorkshire probates and administrations granted in London during the Commonwealth period was considerably below that at York, when the Courts there were exercising jurisdiction. For example, in the year 1657, a year in which the Yorkshire grants, so far as they can be ascertained, were above the normal, the number of grants made in London for the whole of Yorkshire was only about 648, as against 775 made in the fifth, or average, year for the nine Yorkshire deaneries included in the first table, which takes no account of the grants for the deaneries of the Ainsty, City or Craven, nor of those made in the Prerogative Court. It is clear that during the Commonwealth period a good deal of testamentary business was held back. The accumulation at the re-opening of the Courts at York was probably chiefly due to the disturbed state of the country in the preceding years, to disinclination to depart from the old custom, and to the trouble and expense involved in a journey to London or in the appointment of a proctor to undertake the duties, which would be much more irksome for the executors and witnesses than the former practice. What, if any, other causes were in operation, it is not easy in the present state of our knowledge to say.

No explanation suggests itself as to why the course of events in the deaneries of Doncaster and Pontefract, as illustrated in the last table, was different to that in the other deaneries.

Sometimes there are two dates to a will, one at the beginning, which is the date of the writing of the document, and one at the end, which is the date of publication. In these cases it is the latter date, that of the formal reading, publication, declaration and sealing of the writing as the last will of the testator, which is given in this index, as it indicates the last date upon which the testator was known to be living. A word of warning may be in place in regard to the date of the nuncupative wills. In the majority of instances it is given as "about" March 1, or whatever the date may be. Occasionally the only date which appears is that upon which the witnesses swore to the will, and it is so stated. But in many cases an exact date is given, no doubt generally that of the will, but there is some evidence to show that when this exact date is written at the head of the will, and not in the body of it, it may then sometimes be the date upon which the witnesses swore to it, and not the date when it was uttered.

THE UNREGISTERED WILLS, 1633-4.

Whilst it has always been known that there were a large number of Probate Acts, the wills for which were unregistered about this time, attention has not previously been drawn to the fact that there was a complete gap in the registering between Aug. 1, 1633 and July 31, 1634, exactly similar to the much larger gap from 1636 to 1652. This circumstance was the more easily overlooked as the gap begins in the middle of one year, and ends in the middle of the next. The index to these wills has been prepared from the original documents, whilst the Act Books for the period have been scrutinised and the Probate Acts taken out in those cases in which the wills have been lost or destroyed. These wills are included in Appendix II. which contains 779 references to wills and 121 to Probate Acts,¹ etc.

THE "RE INFECTA" WILLS.

These are wills which for some reason or other have never been proved. There is a separate bundle for each deanery. The index to them, included in Appendix III., is prepared from the lists² of these wills which have been entered in the Act Books at some period subsequent to their compilation, at a time when an effort seems to have been made to arrange various miscellaneous documents of the ecclesiastical court. They are referred to in the Act Books in such terms as the following: "The undermentioned wills are supposed not to be proved, they are therefore put up in a bundle marked Retford D. Reinfecta," or, "The undermentioned wills are supposed to be not dispatched but are put up in a bundle marked Doncaster Deanery Reinfecta." There is an exception in regard to the Prerogative Act Book where they are thus described: "The undermentioned wills are supposed not to have passed the seal, and several are supposed to have been taken from amongst the exhibits, put up amongst others marked Prerogative." These wills have not always been entered correctly into the Act Books, an inspection of a few of the original documents revealing several somewhat serious discrepancies.

THE WILLS IN BUNDLES A AND B.

The Index to these, also printed in Appendix III., has been prepared in the same way as that to the "Re infecta" wills from the Act Books, where they have been entered at the same time and in a similar manner.³ They are thus referred to in the Doncaster Act

¹ An examination of the list of Probate Acts shows that it is the bundle for March which has chiefly suffered, no fewer than 38 wills being missing, the number for the months of June, July, October, and August, which have also suffered considerably, being 17, 15, 15, and 13 respectively.

² The lists will be found on the following pages: Bulmer (fly leaf), Cleveland (fol. 238), Harthill (fol. 13, 63, and 209), Holderness (fol. 263), Buckrose (fol. 442), Dickering (fol. 531 and 534), Nottingham (at end of 1673), Retford (end of 1650), Newark (end of 1663), Doncaster (fol. 531 and 702), Pontefract (between fol. 4 and 5), and Prerogative (fly leaf).

³ The lists will be found on the following pages: Doncaster (fol. 702), Nottingham (end of 1642), and Prerogative (fly leaf).

Book: "The undermentioned wills are difficult to find when proved, but are put up in bundles marked as under," i.e., A or B; and in the Prerogative Act Book, "The undermentioned wills are in bundles marked as under, Q. whether proved."

So far as regards the "Re infecta" wills, and the wills in bundles A and B the whole of the lists in the Act Books, now under review have been copied.

Special permission had to be obtained to index the unregistered wills, and for this privilege the thanks of the Society is hereby accorded to the President of the Probate Division.

The entries noted as on fol. 650, Pontefract, will be found in the Doncaster Act Book on that folio, where they have been accidentally entered amongst the Doncaster grants.

WILLS IN THE YORK REGISTRY.

A.D. 1660 TO 1665.

The date of the Probate precedes the Name and that of the Will follows the Name, the reference to the Register and folio following the latter. During the period covered by this volume the dates of Probate are very rarely given in the registers. They have therefore been supplied from the Act Books. In the case, however, of the Ainsty, City and Craven deaneries this has been impossible, as the Act Book for these deaneries is missing. In a very few instances, marked with an asterisk, in these deaneries in which the date has been supplied it has been taken from the registers. Additional matter from the Act Books has been given within square brackets.

APPENDIX II.

Index to the unregistered Wills, Aug. 1, 1633 to July 31, 1634, and to the Probate Acts for the same period where the original Wills have been lost or destroyed.

(A) The Unregistered Wills.

The date of the Probate precedes the Name, and that of the Will follows the Name. The Will in every case is filed in the bundle for the month in which it was proved. The dates of Probate given in this Index, are endorsed on the Wills. Where it has not been possible to obtain the date of Probate from the Will, it has been taken from the Act Book, in which case the date is given within square brackets, as are also any additional particulars which can be gleaned from the same source.

APPENDIX III.

Index to the "Re infecta" wills and bundles A and B.

This index is prepared from the lists of these wills contained in the Act Books, and is complete for the period covered by them, viz., Bulmer, Cleveland, and Ridall, 1641—1668; Harthill, 1646—1669; Holderness, 1646—1675; Buckrose, 1646—1678; Dickering, 1646—1668; Nottingham, 1641—1673; Retford, 1641—1672; Newark, 1641—1670; Doncaster and Pontefract, 1640—1667, and Prerogative, 1645—1678. The Act Book for the City, Ainsty, and Craven deaneries, 1641—1668, is missing. Some of the documents in the Prerogative bundle appear to have been probates, etc., produced in proceedings in the ecclesiastical court of York, and not returned to the parties interested.

The originals of these wills are to be found in the "Re infecta" bundle for the deanery to which they belong, or in the A or B bundles as the case may be. Some additional matter obtained from the original wills has been included within square brackets.
