

Ash of South Carolina; Franklin & Wilkes County

William Ash, Revolutionary War Soldier, died 15 October 1831 in Franklin County. He married on 8 April 1783 in York District, South Carolina, Jane Fleming. He enlisted in the war during 1776 while a resident of Camden District, South Carolina, served at various times of two or three mos. until 1782 (17 mos. in all), as a private under Capt. Bratton and Col. Neal, Col. Lacy in South Carolina Troops; was in the "Snow Campaign"; in battles of Congaree, Friday's Fort, Ashley, Rocky Mount, Sumter's Defeat and Biggins' Church. Soldier removed from York District, South Carolina to Wilkes County, Georgia; then to Franklin County. His widow applied for his pension on 1 October 1844, while a resident of Capt. David's District in Franklin County, aged 80 years.

Issue: (from bible record contained in the pension)

I. John Ash, born 30 November 1783, married Margaret Newton on 18 March 1813 in Franklin County. www.georgiapioneers.com

II. Alexander F. Ash, born 5 March 1785, married Elizabeth McCracken on 7 October 1824 in Franklin County.

III. James Ash, born 24 October 1786, married Nancy Martin on 27 October 1814 in Franklin County.

IV. Dooley Ash, born 18 April 1789.

V. William Ash, Jr., born 26 January 1791.

VI. Jannet Ash, born 21 January 1793.

VII. Robert Rutherford Ash, born 31 May 1795.

VIII. Mary Hunter Ash, born 6 March 1798.

IX. Elizabeth Ash, born 26 December 1800.

X. Elijah McWhorter Ash, born 20 November 1802.
www.georgiapioneers.com

XI. Isabella P. Ash, born 29 October 1804.

XII. Rachel A. Ash, born 29 October 1804.

REF: Revolutionary War Pension of William Ash, #W5645, Georgia,
Franklin County.