Notes for HENRY C. SINYARD, JR.:

The following is taken from Delton Blalock's book "France to America: Sinyard and Related Families in Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, and Pennsylvania; 1984, pp,3-4.

"Henry C. Sinyard, Jr. migrated from Paulding County, Georgia to Winston County, Alabama along with the Tucker family in the early 1860's. He was 5 feet 10.5 inches tall, and had a light complexion, grey eyes, and auburn hair. Because of his strong abolitionist views, he became a Union soldier during the Civil War. On October 17, 1863, he enrolled at Glendale (Camp Davis, Mississippi) in Company S, 1st Regiment of the Alabama Cavalry Volunteers. He came home ill from the War. He was in the hospital at Decatur, Alabama, from May 1st of 1864. He died in the vicinity of Nashville, Tennessee on August 24, 1864 at about 38 years of age. The cause of death as listed on his military records was chronic diarrhea."

To further document Henry's involvement in the Civil War, his wife, "Mary Ann, filed for a Union Pension on August 1, 1886. She was granted a pension of $8.00 per month effective March 1872. This pension continued until her death at age 92."

Mary Ann, as she was called lived with her only surviving son, William after her husband Henry died at age 38. According to the 1900 Cullman County, Alabama Census report, Mary was living with her grandson, William Riley Sinyard. Notes for HENRY MADISON "LUD" SINYARD:

The following story was written by Donald W. Sinyard.

Lud was 15 years old when General Sherman's troops burned Atlanta and the surrounding area. He observed the destruction from the swamps outside Atlanta. Lud had a dying hatred for people from the north. Ironically, Lud's half brother, Henry C. Sinyard, Jr., served as a union soldier in the First Alabama Cavalry only to succumb to disease after approximately one year of service.

Lud saved every peiece of twine or string. He would tie the pieces together resulting in a large ball, which he would sore away. He would say, "You can never tell when it might come in handy." Lud also saved buckets and buckets of bent and rusty nails, which he picked up. He would say,

"Never throw anything away that could ever be of use."

Lud never tasted an orange or banana. He said that if he did he might love the taste but never have an opportunity to try them again. So, if he never knew the taste he would never crave them.

Lud was not a very devout church going man. He always had a fruit-jar full of good corn whiskey on the mantle, which he used for his nightly medicine.

During his lifetime Lud only knew hard work. There was very little time for fun and excitement. He had very little wealth but he did have a wonderful Christian wife, Ada, who nurtured him the last thirty-seven years of his life.

At Christmas his son, James' family would visit and bring him a pair of dress pants, a shirt, and a tie. He would always fold them up neatly and put them away in his trunk, never trying them on. He called them "coffin" clothes. These were the very clothes he was eventually buried in at his death.

What little wealth Lud accumulated was realized from farming. On the date of his death, at the age of seventy-eight, Lud worked in the fields. He broke for lunch around noon. After lunch he lay down for his regular afternoon nap from which he never awoke.

Notes for RADFORD FULTON SINYARD:

Radford was a farmer. Minnie did the housework and tended to the children in addition to working in the fields with Radford. They always had a cotton field and large vegetable gardens. You never saw a blade of grass or weed in their fields. They worked them everyday. They would get up at dawn and while Minnie was cooking breakfast, Radford would milk, and do other chores. Radford, always was a very slender man, had a philosophy about eating. He said, "Eat like a king at breakfast, a prince at lunch and a pauper at supper." He had a large coffee cup that sat in a saucer. He would pour his coffee in the saucer to cool, then drink it from the saucer. Sometimes he would make a "Soakie". He would place a biscuit in the saucer, pour coffee over it, let the biscuit soak it up, then he would take a spoon and eat it. His favorite supper was cornbread and milk, with a slice of onion.

They loved young people. When the children got older, Radford and Minnie would clear out the front two rooms of their house once a month and have a square dance for the young people in their community. Radford played the fiddle and/or harmonica. Minnie played the mandolin, the harmonica, or the juke harp. Louvie played the piano and Aubrey played the guitar. Hollis loved to buck dance and Lawrence just loved to have fun.

When Louvie was 12 years old, Radford bought a brand new 1919 Dork (a car). He told her that he wanted her to learn to drive. She was the only girl in the community who could drive. When the first airplane came to Paulding County, Radford let Louvie take a ride in it - it cost $10. When She was six years old, Radford bought her a piano. He drove her to Hiram every Saturday (in a wagon) for lessons. When that teacher moved away he drove her to Dallas for lessons. She played beautifully and at a young age was playing the piano or pump organ at several churches. Churches back then had meeting once a month, so she played at three or four different churches.

Radford and Minnie took a lot of pride in their work. Minnie was a very hard worker and could easily pick 400 pounds of cotton a day. One morning she got up and told Radford that she was going to pick a bale of cotton that day. She always picked two rows at once. She got out, picked all day just as hard as she could. She just knew that she had picked a bale - she almost did, she was only about five pounds shy of a bale.

Minnie always had the most beautiful flower gardens in the community. When they lived close to the main highway, people would stop and ask to look at the gardens. People would take pictures of her flowers. If you came to visit you never left empty handed. She would give you a jar of jelly or jam, a handmade apron made from flour sacks, a bouquet of flowers, or fresh vegetables or fruits.

Radford sold fruit trees. He could graft fruit trees too. They always had apple, pear, plum, peach, fig, and cherry trees. Everywhere they lived Radford planted many fruit trees. They always picked wild blackberries, strawberries and persimmons too.

They were always working, doing extra things to make a little money. Minnie made butter and buttermilk and sold the extra. She had plenty of eggs to sell. Radford took care of selling the crops, sold extra vegetables, sold and planted fruit trees, gave haircuts, and even did potrait photography for a time.

Minnie was a wonderful seamstress and was always making their clothes, making aprons, piecing quilt tops and quilting them. She could crochet, embroidery and make tatting. At night Radford would sit and read the Bible out loud. Minnie would do needle work while he read. She taught Louvie to do all of these thing and in turn Louvie taught her daughters to sew.

In the summertime, after lunch, when it was too hot to work in the fields, Radford and Minnie would load up their fishing gear in their little gray car and go down to George creek below their house and fish in the shade of the creek bank. They did everything together, now matter whether it was working or playing. In the warmer of her woodburning cookstove, Minnie always had a platter of tea cakes or biscuits made for the grandchildren when they came. When any of the grandchildren would spend the night, Radford always told them before he went to bed, "The first one to go to sleep give a whistle".

Minnie and Radford were well liked and respected in their community. Radford was good at nursing sick people and he was always there when needed. I wrote this story to help preserve some of the memories of them for their future generations. Dale

He was born 14 May 1905 in Paulding County, Georgia, and died 26 Oct 1971 in Paulding County, Georgia.

Notes for LOUVIE MAE SINYARD:

Louvie was a member of the First Baptist Church in Dallas, Ga. where she sang alto in the church choir for many years. She is buried in the Dallas Memory Gardens cemetery in Dallas. Her life's work as a wife, homemaker, mother, excellent cook and antique dealer made her a very unique person. She was an excellent seamstress and won a state award in the wool suit division in the Home Demonstration Club competition at the University of Georgia sometime around 1948. Another thing that Louvie was accomplished at, especially in her younger years, was piano playing. She enjoyed doing things for her family and was always there with loving arms and a shoulder to cry on. She lived her whole life helping and doing for her family. Her hobby was collecting and selling antiques and junk. This was her way of meeting new people when she had her little shop at The Red Barn Antique Village in Douglasville, Ga. for some 16 years. Louvie and Herschel provided and encouraged their children to take piano lessons. All the children could play and all sang in the youth choirs at church. Music was a big part of their lives and all enjoy and love music to this day. All of their children took music lessons and appreciate and enjoy it now.

Notes for WILLIAM HERSCHEL JONES:

Herschel was a member of the First Baptist Church in Dallas, Ga. and taught the men's Sunday School class there for 16 years. He is buried in the Dallas Memory Gardens Cemetery. He was an educator, teacher and principal, in the Paulding County School System for 40 years and The Herschel Jones Middle School in Dallas is named after him. He also taught Veteran night classes after WWII for 10 years in Dallas. He coached football at Dallas High School around 1943 and coached basketball at Burnt Hickory School, Yorkville School and Union School in Paulding County. He was on the Dallas City Council for about 3 years before he died. Herschel was a very outgoing and friendly person and never met a stranger. He was very sensitive to the needs of others and he never judged a man by the color of his skin, his religious preference or by his chosen life's work. He and mother always taught us to give everyone a chance to prove themselves.

The following was written during the summer of 1951 by Herschel Jones, while taking a college class. It was found by my niece in 1999 at Dad and Mom's home, while sorting and cleaning out their things. To me it is a treasure for it answers many questions that I have wanted to ask Dad over the past several years. He died in 1971 and since that time I have started working on the family genealogy. Finding this truly makes me appreciate my Mother for not throwing away everything, because when I read it I felt like that I was listening to Dad talk to me. I am so thankful this little bit of history about my Father and his family was preserved. I wish that everyone who is working on their family history could be so lucky. Dad not only played on the first football team at Dallas High School, he also played on the first basketball team there. The first football game played in Dallas was an exhibition game for the folks of Dallas to see what football was like.

Dale Jones Loudermilk

My Autobiography
by Herschel Jones

One Saturday early in October 1924, I was standing on the corner of Main Street of my hometown, Dallas, Georgia. Everyone was excited because there was to be the first football game ever played in Dallas.

The new principal of the high school came up and took my arm and asked, "How old are you?" I replied that I was seventeen at that time. He began to talk to me of the advantage of an education, also the pleasure of football. He asked me to go to the game with him to witness the contest.

I went to my first game, and it made a lasting impression on me, as I had always liked sports of any kind. So on Monday following, I was at the school house ready to begin school again.

I was born and reared in Paulding County by very good parents, but as there was a large family and farming was an exacting way of making a living, I had not been able to go to school as much as many boys. Father gave his permission to start back, and this has proved to be the turning point of my life.

I had no intention of finishing high school. I was merely going to go and play football until the season was over, but after starting I made up my mind to complete high school if possible.

My first few days were unpleasant in association with boys of the high school, for up until that time there wasn't many boys from the country. Every one tried his luck to lick me, but as I had always spent my hours in outdoor sports such as hunting, fishing, wrestling, climbing, swimming, and other normal sports as natural to a country boy, I was more than able to hold my own with them.

Being associated with boys and girls, it came natural for me to like to be around them, so after high school I began teaching in a small two teacher school. The school where I went when in grammar school. This community was predominantly Baptist, and very neighborly. Everyone always looking after his neighbors in time of need and sickness.

My Father's Grandfather had come from Wales as an Immigrant. He settled on Pumpkinvine Creek and became a well known farmer. My mother's people were from Virginia. They were all people of a stern character, and I had to behave just so during my early boyhood.

They always taught us to respect other people, to remember that every one had a feeling as same as we did.

They always told us to stand for our rights if and when we knew we were right. They taught us to tell the truth, and to love our God as the creator of all things.

I have been teaching school for twenty-two years in my home county. I have always tried to instill into my pupils that they have one time to prepare for life, that is while they are young. I can truthfully say that I have never mistreated any child and that their station in life does not enter into the picture as a pupil. Every one is on the same basis in my school.

On September 14, 1930, I married a wonderful girl. One that has been a great help and companion to me. We have three children, two girls and one boy. We are making every effort to bring up these children in the right way. The oldest has already finished one year in college and the other two are in school. I am trying to keep them from missing as much in school as I did.

With the help of God and my fellow beings, I hope to live a life of which I will not be ashamed to leave behind.

Notes for LILA ANNE JONES:

Lila's first three school years were spent at Cochran, Burnt Hickory and Wheelan. Later years were spent in the Dallas School system until she graduated in 1950.

The lack of a local 4-H Club led Lila to convince the county extension agents to organize the Cloverleaf 4-H Club. Acting as its first president, Lila began a 4-H program in Paulding County, a decision that impacted her life. Moving through the ranks in the County Council, Lila attended district and state programs and excelled in project competitions. By winning a trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, in 1950 she became the first Master 4-Her from Paulding County and Georgia's first National Clothing Achievement winner. In 1952 she was one of four Georgia delegates to attend the National 4-H Camp in Washington D. C. In 1954 she won the Georgia 4-H Project Achievement Award and in 1956 was an IFYE delegate to Italy.

Lila attended West Georgia College from 1950-52 and later the University of Georgia from 1952-54, where she earned a BSHE degree with a major in Clothing and Textiles. Ten years were spent as an Extension Home Economist for the state universities of Georgia, California and Illinois.

Lila Married Ray Allison of Fairfield, Illinois. She left the extension Service in 1967 when Ray graduated from the University of Georgia Law School and they settled in Columbus, Georgia. She then devoted her time to rearing their two children, Kenneth Ray and Pamela Anne. In 1985 she began work at Design Galleries and by 1992 became the owner.

Notes for RAY LEON ALLISON:

Ray graduated from Fairfield High School in Fairfield, Illinois in 1954 and from the University of Illinois in 1958. He was in the ROTC in college and served in the U. S. Army for 4 years after graduating from college. In 1967 he graduated from the University of Georgia Law School and is now a partner in the Denney, Pease, Allison, and Kirk Law Firm in Columbus, Ga. He is a member of the First Baptist Church in Columbus, Ga.

Children of LILA JONES and RAY ALLISON are:

369. i. KENNETH RAY<sup>11</sup> ALLISON, b. 28 Jan 1963, Walnut Ridge, Arkansas.
- ii. PAMELA ANNE ALLISON, b. 08 May 1968, Columbus, Georgia; m. DEREK MURRAY BENTON, 18 Oct 2003, Paulding Co., GA; b. 18 May 1978, Florissant, IL.

Notes for PAMELA ANNE ALLISON:

Born and raised in Columbus, Georgia, Pamela now resides in her late maternal grandmother's house, located in Dallas, Georgia. She has helped restore and renovate the historic home to its original splendor, and is looking forward to having her organic garden next year.

Currently a partner and co-manager in a family owned business, Pamela is working quickly toward offering her own line of handcrafted, limited edition fine jewelry and lapidary work. Applying her fine art background within her business life is a natural extension of her aesthetic love and theoretical understanding of art. After obtaining her first degree in Anthropology from the University of Georgia, Pamela went on to study Art History at Radford University in Virginia. she graduated with top honors and achieved membership in an academic honor society.

Pamela's fondness for world history and architecture led to her winning a scholarship at Oxford University in England for a summer's program of study. Her achievements in Europe led to another induction in an academic honor society, one open only to international scholars.

However, Pamela is very down to earth and loves sharing her home with her three cats, bird and beta fish. In addition to doing volunteer work with the local animal shelter, she is also acclimating herself to the Paulding County community in general, where she is reconnecting with her maternal family history and roots.

Notes for HERSCHEL MAXIE JONES:

Maxie graduated from Dallas High School in Dallas, Ga. in 1955. He served in the U. S. Navy on an aircraft carrier and was in the Cuban blockade. He is a very friendly and outgoing person like his parents. He loves the mountains, fishing and sports. He is a member of the First Baptist Church in Dallas, Ga. Maxie played trombone in the first Dallas High School Band and took piano lessons when he was young - he loves listening to music almost as much as he loves watching football.

The first six years were spent on the family farm in the Sudie Community, the family then moved to Dallas. Maxie was a child who was always working on something. He shined shoes at a local barber shop, delivered groceries for Tom and Red Hay on a bicycle, cut grass with a push mower, delivered newspapers to the people in town and worked at Peoples Drug Store.

As a 4-H member he had many projects but two that I remember the most were raising rabbits and then later, setting out 10,000 pine trees on the Jesse Acheson farm that his father bought. Maxie even gave his father money that he had in savings to help buy the farm. His present home is now located on part of that property. He started out mowing grass for the neighbors with a push mower. He saved his money and bought his first power mower and hired a couple of other boys to help him.

He would get up at 5:00 a.m. each morning and deliver the Atlanta Constitution before going to school. There were several women who would have a biscuit ready for him when he came by. Later he also delivered the afternoon paper, The Atlanta Journal, after football practice. All of this was done while still going to school everyday. He didn't have to do these things, he did them because he wanted to.

At the age of 14 he bought his first car, a 1934 Chevrolet for about $35. He then hired another boy to help him deliver papers.

He and Sue married secretly when he was 16. They married secretly so that they could finish high school. The day after he turned 18, he went to work at Lockheed Aircraft in Marietta, on swing shift, and graduated from high school that year.

After his service in the Navy, he worked for Joe Jones Ford Company, again at Lockheed, and as an Allstate insurance adjuster. He loved working on cars and built a small body shop as a side job. He finally built a larger shop on Old Cartersville Highway and did this full time for many years. He is now in the chrome plating business.

His hobby in his late teens and early twenties was drag racing, when Marvin Jones built the local drag strip in Paulding County. At one time he had many trophies representing his many wins.

He was so proud of his daughter Kim. They were best friends all of her life. He and Sue divorced in the early 1970s. When Kim was 14 she went to live with him. The one thing they enjoyed doing together was riding motorcycles. Kim was an honor graduate which made her father very proud of her. He gave her the down payment for her first car and she worked after school and on weekends to make the payments and pay the insurance.

Kim was murdered on 1990 by her estranged husband and three hired me. The impact of this tragedy will haunt her family members for as long as they live. Maxie takes one day at a time and makes the best of it, but the haunting of Kim's death is remembered every day.

Notes for KIMBERLY KAY JONES:

Kim was pure sunshine in our family. Always a big smile on her face and a twinkle in her eye. Always joking and laughing. If you weren't feeling "up to snuff", she would have you laughing and smiling in no time. Even as a toddler she would keep us in stitches. Always into something like the time (at about two years of age) when she was in the back seat of the car. She only had on a diaper, with a purse hanging on her arm. Her mother stopped at the red light and noticed the people in the car beside her laughing and pointing to Kim. Her mom turned around and Kim was standing there in her diaper with lipstick all around her mouth with one of her daddy's cigars stuck in it. Both arms resting on the back of the seat, her belly hanging over her diaper and the purse hanging on her arm, she was ready to go to town.

What about the time her mom called her dad at work and wanted him to come home to kill the cat because it had scratched Kim in the face? He did not come home immediately because he was use to Kim's antics and figured he should talk to her first because he knew she dearly loved that cat. He talked to Kim later that evening and found out she was holding the cat and was putting it up to the dog's face. Well naturally this scared the cat and the only way it knew how to defend itself was to scratch her. When Maxie asked her why she did it - her reply, "But Daddy, it was funny."

When she was small she would go down and visit her Great-Grandmother Sinyard. This was indeed an adventure because Momo Sinyard had a chamber pottie with a lid that she used - a white enamel bucket trimmed in red. Kim told Momo she wanted one just like it - well what do suppose Momo Sinyard got her for Christmas that year?

She was always so full of energy. Never sat still. When she learned to walk she didn't walk - she ran. Now her cousin Kenny was active too but he loved to read, even at the tender age of two and three. If he came and she had a new book that he had not read he would want to read first then play later. Kim got wise to this and when she knew that Kenny was coming for a visit she would tell her mother, "Mother hide the books, I want Kenny to play."

Kenny and Pam lived in Columbus, GA., so Kim didn't get to play with them very often. The birth of my daughter when Kim was seven years old was a big event to her. After my daughter was born on the morning of June 10, 1970, Kim's mother called her from the hospital and told her that Aunt Dale had a baby girl. Kim's reply was, "Well, I knew my Aunt Dale would have me a baby girl. I knew she wouldn't have an ole stinking boy." From that day Kim adopted Louvie Lynn as her little sister and they remained the best of friends until Kim's death.

Kim was a very smart young girl in every way. She had so much energy and always worked hard at every thing that she tackled, whether it was doing physical type work, office type work or studying. Her parents were always proud of the things that she did because he always put in 110%. She studied hard because she wanted to be an honor graduate. She accomplished this goal. She was in the school band from the fifth grade until she graduated and was the drum major for her high school marching band her senior year.

Yes, she was our sunshine for almost 28 years but her brutal murder - yes, murder - has cast an everlasting cloud over our family forever. She was the first Grandchild. Her personality and love for laughing from an infant until she died is missed sorely by our family. Family get togethers are so different. All of the Grandchildren are happy and energetic people but when you have had four for so long, and one is taken from you so brutally, it leaves you always knowing what is missing. It has never been the same - and never will be.

Kim was in the middle of a divorce. Her etranged husband, Jack Ray Wallace - his lawyer, Michael Glean and two of Glean's friends: Frederick Speas and Jeremiah Lee (who claimed to be a preacher) - brutally murdered Kim on December 13, 1990, at the home of Jack Ray Wallace in Hiram, GA. They stuffed her body in a tool box (the kind that fits into the back of a pick-up truck). They placed the box in an airplane and was going to dump it in the Okefenokee Swamp in South Georgia. They drove her car to Cumberland Mall and left it in the parking lot to try to make it look like that maybe she had been abducted from the mall. If it had not been for a very alert guard at the Ware County, Georgia prison, we would never have known what had happened to her. They landed the plane at the Ware County Airport which is right next to the prison. All the lights were off on the plane. They landed the plane to take a door off so that they could dump her body.

The guard saw it land (remember with no lights on) and got suspicious. He thought it was drug smugglers. He alerted the sheriff's office. Just as Glean and Speas got back into the plane and started the engine the sheriff cars drove up and blocked them. Instead of drugs, they found the body of a beautiful young girl - our Kim.

Those cruel, mean men murdered our Kim but they can never erase our wonderful memories of her. The smiling, fun loving, laughing, twinkled eyed sunshine is no longer with us in body, but she will forever be with us in spirit.

Notes for REBECCA DALE JONES:

Dale graduated from Dallas High School in June of 1961. She graduated from West Georgia College in Carrollton, Ga., with a BS in Elementary Education in 1971 and later she earned her Masters Degree in Elementary Education, also at West Georgia College. She then added certification to teach Gifted Education, grades K-12 to her credentials. She taught in the Paulding County School System from March, 1971 until June 1997 before having to take disability retirement through the Teachers Retirement System of Georgia because of numerous health problems. Dale, like her siblings, took piano and organ lessons from the day she was 6 years old until she started college. She earned a double minor while at WGC, one in music and one in art. She even taught piano lessons for many years. Dale's hobbies are genealogy, photography, reading, music and playing with her grandchildren. She is a member of the First Baptist Church in Dallas, Ga. She was nominated for Who's Who Among America's Teachers by one of her former students in 1992, was team leader of her teaching team at the Herschel Jones Middle School, on the Coordinating Council for 4 years, yearbook advisor and headed up a project of writing to and sending packages to soldiers during the Desert Storm crisis. Her favorite subject to teach was Georgia History and every year one of the main semester projects that her students did was to learn how to and do their family tree.

Her greatest joy, besides being with her grandchildren, is to find new genealogy information on her family. She coordinates and plans the Jones Family Reunion each year, a task she has done since about 1981. She also helps with the Sinyard Reunion, held in Perry, Ga. She and a cousin, Rita Cantrell have organized a Parsons Reunion in Paulding County. She also writes a genealogy column for the local newspaper titled "Family Ties" and is in the process of writing more genealogy books, one on Hawkins and one on some of the descendants of Milicentde Cantilupe (an ancestor of her great-great-grandmother, Nancy Crumpton, who was born around 1200)

In 1982 she wrote "Descendants of Wiley Jones and Nancy Crumpton" and in 1997 completed her life dream book (620 pages and 549 photographs) "Ancestors, Kin and Descendants of William Herschel Jones and Louvie Mae Sinyard", including the family names of Jones, Sinyard, Holland, Adair, Bullock, Parsons, Gann, Smith and Crumpton. There are over 4200 names of kinfolks in that book and she is still adding information everytime she finds more kin. As of today, July 23, 2006, she has 22,875 names in her data base. There are 34 generations on one line and 3349 different surnames in her data.

In 1999 she wrote a book on the Adairs. In 2000 she wrote 2 books, one on the Parsons and one on the Sinyards with the help of her cousin Donald Sinyard from Hawkinsville, Georgia. Kathy Gregory had done a lot of research on the Gore family and together she and Dale put together a Gore book, with Dale adding the research she had done on Sarah Adaline Gore and Charles Pinkney Parsons. She put together a book on her Wells family in 2006.

While teaching from 1971-1997, she was a member of the National Association of Education, the Georgia Association of Education and the Paulding County Association of Education. Since retirement she is a member of the Paulding County Retired Teachers Association.

She was a member of the Dallas Woman's Club for two years, a member of the Edward Hagin Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution for about 3 years and was a member of the Paulding County Genealogical Society until it folded. She is a member of The Paulding County Historical Society. She is on the Paulding County Cemetery Preservation Committee. To this she was appointed by the county commissioner in her district in Paulding County. She was an officer and a director of the Historical Society until 2007. She volunteers one day a week to keep the museum open. She was elected to serve as Vice President of the Paulding County Genealogical Society for the year, July 2003 through June 2004 until it folded. She was co-chairman and supervised the writing and putting together of a book put out by the Historical Society: "The Heritage of Paulding County Georgia 1832 - 1999". She also designed the cover for that book.

In 2002 she printed an updated Jones book and in 2003 she printed a Holland book, a Bullock book and a Gann book. With the help of Mr. William H. Sherwood, she put together a book on the Hagan family. She also printed, in 2003, a book titled "My Ancestors: by Rebecca Dale Jones Loudermilk."

On December 26, 2002 the First Baptist Church in Dallas, GA burned. She has been appointed to a committee of about 8 people, chaired by Tina Bradley, to write a history of the church. The church lost all of their records and they have the task of trying to gather information and putting it together. The Church was established in 1854. The building that burned was built in 1905 on Main Street in Dallas.

Notes for CLIFFORD AUBREY LOCKLEAR:

Clifford served in the U.S. Air force during the late 1960s and served in Vietnam. He is also a Holland descendant on his mother's side.

Notes for WILLIAM ROBERT LOUDERMILK:

Bobby served in the U. S. Navy in the early 1960s. He was in the Cuban crisis on board a destroyer.

Notes for LOUVIE LYNN LOCKLEAR:

Louvie Lynn graduated from Wheeler High School in Cobb Co., Ga. in 1988. She has worked as the office, payroll, accounts, and personnel manager at White Wolf, Inc. and as the accounts payable manager at Americon. She is a very outgoing and talkative person who never meets a stranger. She and Todd have moved to Seattle, Washington. Louvie Lynn took piano and violin lessons as a child. She had several years of dance as a child and as an adult took ballroom dancing and was an instructor for a short time. She loves music, dancing and acting. Louvie worked for several months at the new rock and roll museum out in Seattle and loved it. During this time she got to meet many present day rock stars, the author Stephen King and several other celebrities and saw Ophra Winfrey. She had to give the job up because she had to be constantly talking and she lost her voice several times. Louvie loves to talk but it has a bad effect on her throat. When she was in the seventh grade she had to have nogaals taken off her vocal cords and her constant talking causes her to lose her voice. She is a very outgoing person and she never meets a stranger but no matter how much I tell her to not talk so much she just keeps on. All four of the grandchildren in our family are talkers and when they were growing up it was always so much fun to have them all together around the table at mom and dad's listening to them. None of us could ever get a word in. Louvie still grives for Kim, they were so close.
