

In the presence of God & men, I do hereby believe, being a sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of life, which I am ready by my being at present Convinced to stand of it I do make, make, make and appoint, this, to be my last, and only, will, and testament as follows that is to say -

First, I give and bequeath, to my sister-in-law, Mrs. all my wearing apparel, excepting my two rings, which I give to my two sons, and my beads and ear-rings, which I give to Sally, Mary, together with with one of my pair glasses -

Second, I give and bequeath to my brother James Woodland, one Cow and Calf - - -

Third, - I give and bequeath to my niece, Mary Baker, one Cow and Calf. - - - Fourth, I give and bequeath to my two sons, George and James all the remaining part of a party of which I shall own property, or be entitled to, either now or hereafter to be divided equally between them, I do Share alike, just promising the payment my just debts - -

And Whereas the happiness of my Children is more likely to be promoted by the of an Education, and the acquisition of Virtues than by the possession of a large Estate, without such improvement, it is my last and urgent request that particular care be taken with them in this respect, and that they be given as good an Education, as Annual possession of the property I shall leave for them will justify, and - Lastly - I do nominate and appoint Mr. Joseph, of St. Simons, I do name Thomas Miller, of the Island of Cumberland and John Hays, of Salisbury - all of them State, to be Executors of this my last will and Testament -

I give, devise and bequeath } to be last will and testament } as above written, at Cambridge.

I do hereby certify that the day of July 18th in the presence
